Ford Ousts Halleck As GOP Leader

Demos Pick Sen. Long In Place Of Humphrey

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democratic - dominated 89th Congress convened today shortly after House Republicans ousted veteran leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and Senate Democrats named Russell B. Long as their whip.

Halleck went down to defeat to Rep. Gerald A. Ford of Michigan who will command the depleted Republican House forces over the next two years.

The Senate Democrats picked Long for their No. 2 leadership post to settle a three-way contest. He defeated Sens. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island and A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma for the post vacated by Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey.

New majority whip

ADDRESS DUE

In the immediate offing were oening day disputes over far-reaching rules changes in both the House and Senate. And at 9 p.m. EST President Johnson was to address a joint session to deliver his State of the Union message.

Challenge was the keynote of the day except at the ceremonial swearing in rituals where freshmen congressmen were welcomed and veterans from both sides of the aisle held informal reunions.

TWO KENNEDYS

The two Kennedy brothers—Edward of Massachusetts and Robert of New York — walked together into the Senate chamber for the opening ceremony.

Long's victory came on the second ballot at a closed - door meeting of the 68 Democrats, who will far outnumber their 32 Republican opponents in this session.

Halleck was tossed out of the House leadership post just six years after he himself had engineered a coup that had unseated his predecessor Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts.

POST FOR LAIRD

In advance of the Halleck-Ford showdown, the 140 House Republicans picked Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin to be chairman of their party conference—the major policy shaping group. Laird defeated Rep. Peter Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, a late entry who had support of the GOP liberal bloc.

Long, son of the flamboyant Huey Long, is a southerner who was able to enlist support of a decisive group of northern and western Democrats to win the whip job.

He voted against the civil rights bill last session but was temperate in his opposition to the measure. The Louisianan has differed with the leadership on several other questions, including medical care for the aged. But he was credited with piloting the President's tax cut measure through the Senate last year.

He and Johnson worked well together when the President was Senate Democratic leader.

Ford's triumph over Halleck was expected to bring no drastic change of basic leadership philosophy. In general, Ford based his successful campaign to unseat the conservative Halleck on the fact he was a younger man. Halleck is 64. Ford is 51.

Torrents Renew Marin Troubles; Five More Stormy Days Expected

Thaws Menace Coastal Areas

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A continuous barrage of rain and snow storms raised threats of new flooding today in the Pacific Northwest, where two weeks of turbulent weather and raging water has taken at least 42 lives and caused damage estimated at more than $700 million.

George Grace, regional director of the Office of Emergency Planning, said rivers along the coast are rising again but that low temperatures were holding the snow in the mountain areas.

"If that snow melts fast," he added, "we're going to have a repeat of the recent floods."

ROUTES CLOSED

The relentless rain and snow, expected to continue another five days at least, brought relief and repair work to a standstill and stranded holiday travelers throughout the area. (See photos, page 12.)

The California Highway Patrol said all major routes into Humboldt County, which suffered the heaviest damage in the Christmas week floods, had been closed because of heavy rain on the coast and blizzard conditions in the interior.

The Red Cross reported that heavy snows halted at least 2,500 motorists in California's Siskiyou Mountains near the Oregon line. Private homes, schools, churches and civic club facilities in Yreka were thrown open to stranded travelers.

MANY ISOLATED

Meanwhile, the more than 100,000 residents of California's Humboldt and Del Norte counties were expected to be isolated from the rest of the state, except for air and sea routes, for more than a month. Seventeen major rail and highway bridges were washed out in the two counties.

The Red Cross announced in San Francisco Sunday that a preliminary report indicated that at least 4,775 California homes were destroyed or damaged in the floods.

In addition, 800 farm buildings and 374 small business establishments were destroyed or damaged.

W. D. Bibrell, director of the Red Cross California operations, said 20,298 flood victims and workers have been given mass care, including food, shelter, clothing and other emergency needs, since the first day of the floods.

Most communities in the rugged mountainous Siskiyou area were supplied with food and

Slides Delay County Traffic

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

After a brief holiday respite, the rain returned to Marin County with a vengeance this weekend, short-circuiting power wires, flooding basements and starting some slides from waterlogged hillsides.

A mud slide partially closed Paradise Drive on the Tiburon Peninsula today.

Another slide closed the 2300 block of Bridgeway in Sausalito to one-way traffic for 30 minutes starting at about 10 a.m. today, reported Norman Wohlschlaeger, superintendent of public works.

CLOSED AN HOUR

Glenn Drive, near Santa Rosa Avenue in Sausalito, was closed an hour yesterday, starting at 1 p.m. when a large acacia tree fell across the street.

City and county road superintendents reassured residents of most areas that no serious problem appeared in the offing, but the Weather Bureau's five-day forecast offered no hope for a real drying-out period.

Rain was predicted for tonight and tomorrow in the Bay Area, with small craft warnings due to a south wind expected to reach 20 to 30 knots tonight.

FIVE INCHES

More than five inches of rain was recorded in some parts of the county during the 48 hours ending at 8 a.m. today. Highest reading was that at Lagunitas Lake, where 5.05 inches fell in that time.

A total of 110 Pacific Gas and Electric Co. customers were affected by five mishaps which knocked out power during an 11-hour period Saturday. All were blamed on falling limbs.

There was a brief power interruption today in Kentfield.

Three of the incidents were in west Marin. One, at Vision and Sterling roads, affected 30 users in Inverness from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Saturday. Another, at the end of the Point Reyes peninsula, affected 25 customers from 3:35 to 6:50 p.m., and the third put out lights for 20 Point Reyes Station customers from 7:45 to 9:10 p.m.

In Woodacre, a tree fell on a power line on Carson Road, knocking out power for 20 users from 6:30 to 10:25 p.m. Still another interruption was reported at Trestle Glen and Shepherd Way, Tiburon, at 11:30 a.m.

PG&E electrical superintendent Leonard O. Robertson said the Tiburon break came when a pole fell, taking a transformer with it. Service was restored to 15 customers when a temporary transformer was put into operation at 2 p.m.

Better luck was reported by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. San Rafael manager Gordon C. Davenport said there were virtually no trouble calls related to the weather over the weekend.

At 10 a.m. yesterday, Tiburon firemen went to the aid of Helyne M. Michael of 5059 Paradise Drive, when almost a foot of water filled what she had been told was a leak-proof foun-

MAYBE THIS IS A CHORE FOR SUB MEN

As the engineers watched, flood waters receded revealing a startling phenomenon: the two bridges were still there, and intact.

Marin Skiers Trickle Home On One Lane

Hundreds of skiers, including many from Marin, were stranded at Sierra ski resorts yesterday, but most had started home by noon today.

Interstate 80, the newly dedicated freeway over Donner Summit, remained closed to through traffic today, but one west-bound lane was opened to permit skiers to leave lodges at the Sugar Bowl and other major resorts.

Last group to leave the Sugar Bowl got away at 11 a.m. today.

Thirty-five members of the Marin Ski Club spent most of yesterday inside their lodge near Norden, unable to ski in the blizzard, and wondering if they would be able to return to their homes and jobs by today.

They got out, however, with most leaving by 1:30 p.m. yesterday, according to club member Millie Dunshee. She said the group found an alternate route by taking Highway 20 through Nevada City.

The other Sierra route, Highway 50, was reported open to

Saigon Riot Against U.S. Is Put Down

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A mob of 1,000 rioted through Saigon's main streets for more than three hours today, calling for the overthrow of Premier Tran Van Huong.

Viet Cong guerrillas ambushed another Vietnamese Ranger battalion near the town of Binh Gia and killed a U. S. adviser, the first American to die in 1965. Nine Rangers were killed and 30 or 40 were missing.

So far six Americans have been killed in the fighting around Binh Gia, which started last Tuesday. Two others are missing and presumed captured. Government casualties are estimated at about 500.

Since December, 1961, 247 Americans have died in combat in Viet Nam.

Squads of armed marines made no attempt to stop the demonstrators in Saigon, but the rioters manhandled photographers and any police who got in the way. Fights broke out repeatedly as the crowd charged about the city.

At one point, the mob unfurled a banner denouncing "involvement of the American government and Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor in Vietnamese affairs."

At least a score of persons was believed to have been injured. Among those hurt was Associated Press photographer Huynh Cong La.

The mob was not allowed to

County May Clean House On Aides

Some members of the Marin County Board of Supervisors are thinking of asking for mass resignations from county commissions so the new board can start with a new broom, it was learned today.

The plan, which the three supervisors elected in November all said had been discussed informally, would be for all commissioners, regardless of when their terms expire, to offer resignations.

Many of them would be reappointed, but others could be replaced by men more to the liking of newly elected supervisors.

Affected would be the county planning commission, personnel commission, parks and recreation commission, etc.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, who served by appointment until his election in November, said "there has been discussion by everyone at various times about this problem."

Leydecker said the planning commission particularly was discussed.

"In all three contests for supervisor, the planning function was very much a part of the whole campaign," he said.

"To try to serve with a planning commission you didn't appoint is like asking the President of the United States to serve with a cabinet his predecessor appointed."

One of the county planning commissioners, Edward K. Wachsman, was active in the campaign for John F. McInnis, whom Leydecker nosed out for election.

However, Leydecker said he did not plan to bring up the idea at tomorrow's meeting at which the board of supervisors will reorganize.

Supervisor-elect Thomas T. Storer said just before he took the oath of office today that the idea of mass resignations "was mentioned to me by another supervisor."

"I think it's a good idea," said Storer. "I think it is a way of not embarrassing anybody. In most cases it would be a for-

McCarthy Again Minority Leader

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael was re-elected minority leader of the California State Senate today by unanimous vote of Republican senators attending a meeting in advance of opening of the legislature.

Twelve of the 13 Senate Republicans were present.

Farmers To Get Flood Loan Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department has approved emergency farmers home administration loans to Tehama and Mendocino counties.

Rep. Harold T. Johnson. D-Calif., said Saturday the aid will be extended to eligible farmers because of extensive flood damage in the two counties.

He also said the Army Engineers will hold a public hearing at Eureka Feb. 11 on proposed flood control surveys for the Mad River Basin.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Asian Troop Buildup

SINGAPORE (UPI) — Britain began landing troops in the Far East today, building up the strongest force it has maintained in Asia since the Korean war to bolster Malaysia against the threat of Indonesian attack. A paratroop battalion about 1,000 men was flying here directly from its British base.

Art To Go On Block

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — A 2 million-dollar collection of paintings by Van Gogh, Degas, Renoir, Modigliani and Monet will be auctioned off here next month. The French impressionist and post-impressionist works from the private collection of the late Morris W. Haft of New York will be put on the block Feb. 9 at the Trosby Galleries.

Anti-Red Drive Set

MANILA (UPI) — The government launched a massive drive today against Communist "Huk" terrorists in Pampanga Province, a principal center in the recent outbreak of anti-Americanism in this country.

Avalanche Kills 3

SALZBURG, Austria (AP) — A giant avalanche in the Austrian Alps trapped 21 Dutch students last night, killing three of them. The others freed themselves.

Astronaut Retires

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Astronaut John H. Glenn retires from the Marine Corps today as a colonel, apparently recovered from an inner ear injury he received last Feb. 28.

Berlin Wall Closes

BERLIN (AP) — The Communists closed the Berlin wall again last night after nearly 850,000 West Berliners made Christmas and New Year visits to relatives in East Berlin. More than 1.2 million West Berliners crossed the wall during the two-week period last year.

Oldest Woman Dies

LONG BEACH (AP) — Memorial services were scheduled today for 113-year-old Mrs. Mary M. Kelley, one of the nation's oldest women. Friends disclosed yesterday that Mrs. Kelley died Wednesday at Long Beach Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for the past seven years. Hospital Chaplain Frederick C. Crumb said Mrs. Kelley is listed in the Guinness Book of World Records as having lived longer than anyone on the North American continent with proof of her age.

Ambassador Wed To Californian

MODESTO (AP) — The newlywed Ambassador and Mrs. Elbridge Durbrow, married Saturday in this agricultural Central Valley town, were on their honeymoon today.

Ambassador Durbrow, 61, is deputy United States representative at NATO headquarters in Paris. Mrs. Durbrow is the former Bernice Balcom Helm of Modesto.

The couple will make their home in Paris.

Durbrow, a widower, has been in the U.S. Foreign Service since 1930, serving as ambassador to South Viet Nam from 1957 to 1961.

Student Slays Parents, Sister

Crouse

He confessed to Wilmette police that shortly after dusk Saturday, he stalked through the family's $40,000 split-level home with a .22 caliber rifle.

He said he entered the upstairs bedroom of his sister, Sally, 16, a high school sophomore. She was writing a letter. Without a word, Harrison raised the rifle and shot her twice in the back of the head, she died pen in hand.

Harrison said his mother, Norma, 47, came running up from the kitchen where she had a roast on and was cleaning vegetables. He fired again and missed; she ran into a bedroom.

Next, he said, his father, Morris, 48, an accountant, ran up the staircase. Harrison dropped him with a bullet in the jaw.

His mother then slowly opened the bedroom door and peeked out. Harrison said he killed her with a shot between the eyes.

Today police said Harrison would not tell why he did it.

Teenage Amputee Is Grateful

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ronald Baker, the runaway teenager who returned to undergo amputation of his cancerous leg, says he's looking forward to dancing lessons when he gets his new artificial limb.

Ronald, 16, of suburban Panorama City, made the announcement Saturday at a post-operative press conference he called in his room at Orthopedic Hospital.

The reason for the press conference:

"I just wanted to thank everyone," he said, fingering a stack of letters.

"I'm not very religious, but I think all those prayers from all those strangers helped."

Ronnie, who hitch-hiked as far as Flagstaff, Ariz., to avoid the operation, returned home Christmas Eve.

His left leg, afflicted with bone cancer, was amputated New Years Eve. Doctors said the operation was a success.

Annual Fire Toll Up, Costs Down

BOSTON (AP) — Fires killed 11,900 persons in the United States in 1964 and destroyed property worth $1.67 million, the National Fire Protection Association said today. Almost 30 per cent of all fire victims were children.

The number of deaths increased 100 over the 1963 toll but was less than the record mark of 12,100 fire deaths set in 1954.

American Prestige Reported Increasing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Latest polls indicate that American prestige overseas is higher now than a few years ago despite recent raids on U. S. libraries abroad, the United States Information Agency reports.

USIA Director Carl Rowan said one recent opinion study in France "would indicate that the average French citizen has a far better opinion of the United States than the general comment about troubles with President de Gaulle, conflicts with France, and so forth, would have you believe."

Cal Chancellor Moves Fast To End Strife

BERKELEY (AP) — A fast-moving new chancellor took over the strike-ridden Berkeley campus of the University of California today on the optimistic note that turmoil over student political activity can be settled by February.

Dean Martin Meyerson, 42, was elevated to acting chancellor in a surprise move by the university's Board of Regents Saturday night.

He succeeded Dr. Edward Strong, 63, who asked for and was granted an indefinite leave of absence to recuperate from a recent illness.

Yesterday afternoon Meyerson called a news conference and read a statement declaring: "Civil desobedience is warranted only when there is no recourse to reasonable deliberation. Avenues of recourse now are available on this campus.

"If we work together on our immediate problems we can achieve a solution by the beginning of the new term in February."

Last night Meyerson issued a set of campus rules covering what he called "those matters of greatest concern during the next few days."

The rules permit open discussion on the steps of the administration building, Sproul Hall; establish hours and places where students can set up tables and receive donations, distrubute literature and recruit for causes, and reduce from 72 hours to 48 the advance notification required for off-campus speakers to be brought on campus.

A minority group of the 27,000-member student body demanding virtually unlimited freedom on campus to espouse off-campus causes such as civil rights, had slated a noon rally on Sproul Hall steps today.

Meyerson came to the Berkeley campus only 18 months ago and for the past year has been dean of the school of environmental design. He formerly taught city planning and urban research at Harvard and directed the Harvard - Massachusetts Institute of Technology Urban Studies Center.

Mario Savio, 22, Free Speech Movement leader who had called the meeting for noon Monday, said:

"The person who's there as chancellor is not the important thing.

"The whole campus government is autocratic. The students and faculty have no real voice in what's done to them. Even a good administrator may feel called upon to show that he is a firm man."

Cuban Rescues Keep Coast Guard Hopping

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Coast Guard says U. S. ships are picking up refugees from the waters around Cuba at the rate of 1,000 a year.

In a report Sunday night on the service's 1964 activities, the Coast Guard said more than 6,000 Cubans have been brought to the mainland by its vessels since the Florida Keys patrol went into operation in 1959.

Indonesians Warned Off By Malaysia

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — The Malaysian government announced today it is prepared to retaliate against Indonesia "under the rule of hot pursuit when and if forced to."

Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman met with his cabinet in emergency session following Indonesia's announcement that it is withdrawing from the United Nations.

Rahman announced that in view of the "mounting threat" from Indonasia, the cabinet also decided to:

1. Ask Malaysia's allies in the British Commonwealth to send reinforcements if necessary.

2. Inform the United Nations "on the seriousness of the threat of more intensive Indonesian attack and request the United Nations to assist us in defense of our nation in the event of such a happening."

3. Establish more training centers to expedite the expansion of Malaysian armed forces.

"The withdrawal from the United Nations by Indonesia," said Rahman, "follows a series of actions by that country in defiance of world opinion, the rule of law and the United Nations.

"The existence of small independent sovereign nations like Malaysia is being threatened by aggressive bullying and expansionist tactics of our neighbors."

Sukarno May Attempt United Nations Rival

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesia President Sukarno is expected to try to form an organization of young nations as a rival to the United Nations.

It is believed here that Indonesia's opposition to the seating of Mayalsia on the U. N. Security Council was only a pretext for quitting the world organization, which the Indonesians claim has "degenerated into a mere tool" of the United States and Britain.

Sukarno is thought to envision Indonesia taking the lead in a new organization of what he calls the Nefos — new emerging forces — as against the Oldfos — old established forces. He has had no success with such ideas in the past.

In 1963, Sukarno got little support when he withdrew Indonesian athletes from the Olympic Games after he set up the games of the new emerging forces—Ganefo.

Nor did he draw much support last October at the second conference of nonaligned nations in Cairo when he said their approach was outdated and should be replaced by his concept of the new emerging forces.

However, Sukarno might propose a regional grouping similar to the Organization of African Unity that would not require other nations to pull out of the United Nations. An occasion for him to put forth this proposal would be the second African-Asian conference in Algiers in March.

There was no word from the presidential palace in response to U. N. Secretary-General U Thant's appeal to Sukarno to reconsider his withdrawal decision. Foreign Office officials were not available for comment since today is a Moslem holiday.

FBI Head Reviews Rights Case Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says the number of civil rights cases investigated last year increased sharply over 1963, with 960 initiated under the new law effective last July 2.

In his annual year-end report Hoover also warned anew of Communist plans for inroads in this country. He said the party has assigned priority to a recruitment campaign aimed at gaining new members from the ranks of American youths.

Knife Wielder Attacks, Robs Hub Divorcee

A 38-year-old San Anselmo divorcee was raped three times at knifepoint and then robbed in her home early today by a masked man who slapped her when she pleaded with him to stop, she told police.

The nearly hysterical woman sobbed her story to police at about 5 a.m. after struggling free from loose bonds the attacker had devised from clothing he found in her bedroom.

DRAWS KNIFE

The woman said she dozed off on a living room couch at about 1 a.m. after returning home from an evening with friends. She awoke to see the man standing over her, wearing a nylon stocking as a mask.

He drew what looked like a kitchen paring knife, she told Sgt. George Albergi and Patrolman Richard Timmis. He then grabbed her by the arm and forced her to the bedroom where he attacked her.

After the attacks the man searched her dresser drawers, taking a purse containing small change and credit cards and a cheap transistor radio. He then told her to remove wedding bands and a ring, which the woman told police were worth $800.

The woman's two daughters, who normally stay with her, were spending the night in San Francisco, she said.

The man said she would recognize him if he removed his mask, she told the officers.

Sergeant Albergi said police have no suspects, but think the man must have known something about the family's habits to have chosen a night when the daughters were not home.

Space debris crashing at terrific speeds digs countless craters on the moon. Some craters are as small as a pinhead; others as big as Hudson Bay. Similar flying matter attacks the earth, but the atmosphere burns up all but the largest particles, and water erodes away the gaping wounds.

Subdivision Hearings On Agenda In Novato

Tentative maps of a 24-lot subdivision by Crown Development Co. and a 10-lot subdivision by McGillicuddy Inc. will be considered by the Novato Planning Commission at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

The Crown Development subdivision is Rancho Village Unit 9 on eight acres. McGillicuddy's is on four acres on the north side of Center Road. Adjacent to it, McGillicuddy is asking rezoning from single family dwellings to apartments for one lot.

John A. Lyddon's request for a permit for a trailer park on 120 acre south of Hamilton Air Force Base and east of Highway 101 is also on the agenda for the meeting, as is Harold Walton's request to operate a ballet school in a residence at 799 Plaza Linda.

Architectural supervision is sought by J. and E. Builders Inc. for a five-unit apartment house at 1117 Olive Avenue, by C. P. Bedford and Sons for a 42-by-145 foot commercial building at 1400 South Novato Boulevard, by Alfred Bellucci for a store and office building on Front Street between Diablo and Mirabella avenues, and by Ralph T. McGrath for a 15-unit apartment building on Cherry Street at Armstrong Street.

Lot splits are requested by R. E. Straus on Ridge Road and by Francisco A. Fonseca on Hayden Avenue. R. E. Moeller wants to convert a house at 1713 Novato Boulevard into two offices.

Mock War Kills Youth— Bullets Real

KERNVILLE (AP) — Four youths played war with real guns Saturday near Kernville and one was killed, the sheriff's office reported.

Deputy Howard Wines said:

Six youths went to a cabin owned by the parents of Paul Kelly, 17, of Los Angeles. They were armed with four .22-caliber rifles and one shotgun.

Joseph Lee Soto, 19, of Culver City, 11854 Washington Place, and Kelly shot from behind a tree while George Hall, 17, of Culver City and George Schifer, 17, of Los Angeles, fired from behind a nearby rock.

One bullet struck Soto in the chest and he died instantly.

It is not known who shot Soto.

Wines said the boys told officers they were not aiming at each other, but directed their fire "near each other."

The boys were returned home to the custody of their parents to await the results of an investigation.

Two youths, Richard Wilson and Donald Sadler, both 18 and from Venice, remained inside the cabin while their friends played war.

Since 1961, 110,000 Americans have applied for service in the Peace Corps. More than 10,000 have served; 5,000 continue to volunteer each month; Peace Corpsmen and women have been sent to 46 countries; 24 other nations are on the waiting list; and the backlog of requests for volunteers from foreign governments surpasses 50,000.

A WET RETURN TO SCHOOL

Public schools reopened in Marin County today after the Christmas holidays, and many children found the return to school no pleasure at all in the heavy rain. These youngsters are walking down the middle of Woodland Avenue to reach Davidson Junior High School in San Rafael. Sidewalks in the area were submerged. In the Kentfield School District, mothers had to turn chauffeurs at the last minute to take seventh and eighth graders to A. E. Kent School when no bus appeared. Supt. Howard C. Harmon said Patchett Transportation Co., which provides the bus under contract, gave no advance notice it would not appear. When he inquired about its absence, he was told simply "the bus wouldn't start." Many children were tardy, Superintendent Harmon said.

County workmen were busy in Tamalpais Valley this morning clearing a 100-foot stretch of Main Street which had flooded.

Yesterday, Alto firemen were called to unplug a culvert at 130 Lomita Drive to stop water from flowing over a resident's lawn.

Sheriff's deputies received a call at 8:16 p.m. from Joan C. Grant of 500 Fawn Drive, Sleepy Hollow, that a culvert above her home was blocked. She feared eroding earth would slide onto her property.

Fifteen minutes later, Diane R. Oberschlake of 3815 Redwood Highway, north of San Rafael, reported that the area around her home, next to the Three-R School, was flooded

County road crews were called out in both cases.

The rains caused water to start running over the spillway of Novato's Stafford Lake at noon yesterday. North Marin County Water District's purification supervisor, William Melson, said it was the first time the lake had filled in two years.

Kent and Lagunitas Lakes also were full today, and Bon Tempe and Alpine lakes were within two or three feet of the top, while Nicasio Reservoir was within inches.

A slide was reported this morning on White's Hill of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard west of Fairfax.

San Rafael Public Works Director Norris Rawles said a few manholes were popping up in the city, but storm drains had continued to function well through the weekend, preventing serious damage.

Fairfax Public Works Director Richard Nelson said his crews' greatest headache so far was a large number of chuckholes which had appeared in streets.

Temperatures early today were not so low as in recent days. Fairfax reported a low of 50 degrees, while minimum of 49 was reportedi n San Anselmo and 44 in Belvedere.

San Rafael received 3.69 inches of rain during the 48 hours from noon Saturday until noon today.

Other rain readings, for a 48-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today, were:

San Anselmo, 4.74; Alpine Lake, 4.4; Ross, 4.29; Kent Lake, 3.68; Chevy Chase, 3.48; Bon Tempe Lake, 3.38; Tamalpais Valley, 3.3; Woodacre, 2.83; Novato, 2.75; Sausalito, 2.3; Inverness, 2.2; Belvedere, 2.16; Mill Valley, 2.08; Nicasio, 1.76; Point Reyes Station, 1.7; Fairfax, 1.6.

City Hall Showdown Tonight

A showdown between the San Rafael Council and the combine of architects designing the new city hall may come at today's council meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m. at city hall.

"Discussion of new city hall" is Item 7 on the agenda.

Councilmen met at a luncheon session Tuesday and agreed they were less than delighted over the lack of communication between the city and San Rafael Architects Associated as to how the designs are going.

They also voiced concern over details of the proposed design itself.

Also scheduled at the session is a possible solution to the problem of giving police and firemen the same number of holidays enjoyed by other city employees.

Item 12 on the agenda is a set of proposed changes in the city's personnel ordinance, worked out by City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen after consultation with the police and fire chiefs.

mality, and the commissioners would be reappointed. I think it may come up tomorrow."

Storer also mentioned the planning commission as one on which he would like changes. Henry C. Hankins, planning commissioner from Storer's Fourth District, was manager of Supervisor George H. Ludy's unsuccessful campaign for reelection.

Supervisor-elect Ernest N. Kettenhofen, who plans to take the oath of office tomorrow morning, said he had been approached about the proposal and would not be surprised if it was brought up tomorrow.

Kettenhofen said he is opposed to the idea. He said he feels the board "should work with what we have." Commissioners can be replaced when their terms expire, he suggested.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss, the board's veteran who is expected to step down as chairman tomorrow, said he had "heard a rumor about somoe changes in the appointed officials, but nothing has been discussed with me yet."

The various commissioners are appointed to fixed terms but serve at the pleasure of the board of supervisors. In most cases, a commissioner can be removed by votes of three of the five supervisors. In the case of the personnel commission, votes of four supervisors are necessary.

—A challenge to the seating of four Mississippi Democrats and one Republican on behalf of a slate of "Freedom Democrats" who claim the state's congressional delegation was illegally chosen in elections that excluded most Negro citizens.

—A Democratic "package" of three changes in House rules, designed to smooth the way for Johnson's soon-to-be announced "Great Society" legislative program. The rule proposals were approved 189-71 in a closed House Democratic caucus Saturday, but they still must be adopted by the House itself.

House Democrats settled one hot issue at the Saturday caucus, when they voted 157-115 to strip the seniority of two southerners who supported Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater in 1964.

With all but 23 of the 295 House Democrats on hand, the caucus voted to place Reps. John Bell Williams, D-Miss., and Albert W. Watson, D-S. C., at the bottom of the Democratic list in passing out committee assignment this year.

enter Buddhist headquarters, and Buddhist spokesmen claimed they were not involved. But the mob had assembled originally at the call of Buddhist leaders to protest the trial of students arrested last December in anti-government protests. The trials were canceled when the mob appeared on the waterfront.

Marines pushed the demonstrators away from the waterfront, and they made their way through the streets to the city's main market place, carrying the limp figure of a student they claimed had been beaten unconscious.

Hamilton Produces History Of Air Base

A chronicle of Hamilton Air Force Base's "First Thirty Years" has been completed by historian Ruth Wampler of the 28th Air Division.

The thick volume consists largely of newspaper clippings from the years 1931-35. It traces the origins of Hamilton Field from the signing, in 1930, by President Herbert Hoover, of the bill authorizing its construction, through its actual opening in 1934, on up to the present day. Only 35 copies were produced.

cars, buses and light delivery trucks only today, and chains were required.

Good skiing was expected once the storm ends, with as much as 130 inches of snow at some spots, but the Sugar Bowl reported there was no skiing yesterday due to the wind. The area's famed "Magic Carpet" tramway was closed much of the time, but was being run at intervals today, loaded down with passengers and baggage for safety.

Search Delayed

Bad weather again has brought a halt to the Civil Air Patrol's search for a single-engine plane in which Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent Murphy of 500 South Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, disappeared Dec. 19.

medicines by helicopter during brief breaks in the weather last week, but blizzard conditions grounded the helicopters during the weekend.

However, supplies were being stockpiled at Happy Camp so the small civilian copters could resume mercy flights as weather permitted. But even the task of reaching coastal cities wasn't an easy one.

Air Force Reserve Major James Hopkins, Novato, reported winds up to 60 miles an hour, heavy icing conditions and a ceiling of 300 feet when several planes landed at Arcata during the weekend with food, fuel and reconstruction equipment.

"The soup was so thick one of the planes had to make five tries," Hopkins said. "You just couldn't see the runway until you were right on top of it . . . we were lucky. We made it in on the third trip in our C119."

Hub Home Hit By $6,000 Fire

An overstuffed chair left on a floor furnace caused a fire which gutted a vacant house at 410 Laurel Avenue, San Anselmo, at 9:55 p.m. Saturday.

Firemen said the blaze did $6,000 damage to the house, owned by David A. Campbell of 31 Kemp Avenue, San Anselmo, and another $2,000 to furniture. Damage to the structure was nearly total.

Campbell had been remodeling the house, firemen said, and apparently left the chair on the floor furnace in the living room when he left sometime earlier in the day.

The fire was first seen by a neighbor, who called the fire department. Crews of two pumpers and a lighting truck spent nearly two hours putting out the blaze.

Hospital Expansion On Tiburon Agenda

The Tiburon Planning Commission, meeting at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School, will consider plans for expansion of the Marin Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital.

Mossoni Properties, Inc., is requesting permission to construct a 4,500-square foot addition which would increase the number of beds in the hospital from 56 to 80.

Also on the agenda are requests to two lot splits and for a permit to sell boats and teach sailing at 21 Main Street.

AEC, Brown Reach Water Pump Accord

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission and California Gov. Edmund G. Brown have reached agreement on a plan for a joint atomic power plant project to supply about 525,000 net electrical kilowatts for the pumps of the state's water project.

The water project is designed to conserve surplus water and transport it to needed areas in the southern part of California. The water will have to be pumped some 2,000 feet over mountains.

The commission, in announcing the agreement Saturday, said two sites for the atomic plant currently are under consideration. One is at the Project's Tehachapi pumping station and the other would be located along the coast line to permit operation of an experimental seawater desalting facility.

The AEC said it reached a memo of understanding with Brown which will serve as the basis for seeking Congressional authorization of the nuclear power plant project.

Under terms of the memo, the state of California would finance the construction and own the atomic plant, which will cost an estimated $80 million. The AEC will perform the necessary research and development and provide the initial fuel loading.

The new type of reactor, known as the large seed blanket reactor, will demonstrate technology which is expected to provide means for ultimately making available for power production about 50 per cent of the potential energy in the thorium reserves of the United States—and an energy many times larger than the energy available from known possible fuel reserves.

Car Clouters Hit Three Vehicles, Officers Report

A series of "car clouts" around the county was reported by sheriff's deputies and San Rafael police yesterday.

Greatest loss was reported by George W. Fay of 208 Ricardo Road, Strawberry, who said the windshield and spotlight, worth a total of $150, were smashed on his station wagon between 4 p.m. Friday and 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

Tom Q. Chee of 437 Live Oak Drive, Tamalpais Valley, said the gear shift knob and rubber transmission boot were taken from his car last week.

Theft of a tachometer and radio speaker from an unlocked car was reported to San Rafael Police by George M. Currey of 1629 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, at 12:30 a.m. Saturday. Police said the car was parked at the Country Club Bowl, 88 Vivian Way, at the time of the theft.

Recreation Group To Discuss Goals

The Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission is scheduled to discuss its 1965 goals at a meeting at 2 p.m. Wednesday at room 413 at the Civic Center.

The commission also will discuss the Bolinas Lagoon and the Regional Water Pollution Control Board's action to halt pollution there.

Windows Broken In Marin

A few people saw the New Year in by breaking other people's windows, San Rafael police and Marin County sheriff's deputies reported Saturday.

Deputies said they received reports Thursday that at least two car windshields were knocked out on Paradise Drive near Corte Madera by someone who apparently used a bar and hammer.

Car owners were Marilyn M. Demarche of 4000 Paradise and Robert S. Lackey of 2350 Paradise.

San Rafael police learned of two house windows smashed by tossed rocks on New Year's Eve.

Marguerite C. Ross of 772 Beechnut Court said her kitchen window was smashed at 11:15 p.m. Thursday.

A second broken window in the living room of the same address was reported at 12:55 a.m. Friday by Ted G. Miodonski.

Reservists Take Part In Flood Relief

Eight Marin County Air Force Reservists, members of the 349th "Golden Gate" troop carrier wing, participated in several of the wing's 56 mercy flights taking equipment and supplies to disaster stricken residents of Humboldt County.

Members of the disaster relief crews included Maj. Ray M. Foster of 110 H Lane, Maj. William J. Hopkins of 110 Washington St., Capt. Charles Jones of 530 Arthur Street, S/Sgt. Lloyd B. Bowen of 2388 Dominic Drive, and T/Sgt. DeWayne W. Lockhart of 9 Katlas Court, all of Novato; Maj. Robert C. Boyd of 460 Canal Street and S/Sgt. Arlen C. Davids of 1563 Lincoln Avenue, both of San Rafael, and Capt. William S. Cary of 315 Magee Avenue, Mill Valley.

All of the missions required instrument flying because of bad weather, according to Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore, commander of the 349th. The reservists, piloting C-119s, known as "flying boxcars," have delivered a half-million pounds of emergency flood relief supplies, including food, and have an equal amount ready for shipment, Moore said.

Complicated Task

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two San Francisco police inspectors got more than they bargained for when they went to arrest a woman parole violator. They found the pregnant woman in labor and delivered the baby before an ambulance could arrive.

Ocean Vessel Planned For Indians' Rescue

A plan to get aid to stranded Yurok Indians by floating an ocean-going fishing vessel up the flooded Klamath River was put forth today by Carl Hepp of 155 Elm Avenue, Mill Valley.

Hepp said the ship would be operated by its owner, a professional fisherman from Eureka, whose wife is a Yurok.

Timm Williams of Fairfax, who is Prince Lightfoot of the Yurok tribe, will join Hepp and Alan Morris of 147 Scenic Drive, San Anselmo, whose wife, Fawn, is also a Yurok, in taking supplies from Marin to as far north as possible on the coast.

Then the supplies will be transferred to Haberman's ship, which will try to reach the Indians.

Hepp appealed to Marin County residents to contribute food, clothing and blankets for the venture. Collection point is Hepp's home. He said that although helicopters have tried to reach the Indians with supplies, it is not always possible to locate them from the air.

He said the group plans to leave as soon as enough supplies have been collected.

Survey Shows No Change For Burch GOP Status

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dean Burch's plea in letters to all 132 members of the Republican National Committee that he be allowed to stay on as chairman seems to have produced no change of heart.

If they were for him before they heard from him they still are; if they were against him, they are still against him, an Associated Press survey indicated.

Burch's argument that he ought to be retained was keyed to the theme of an earlier letter written the committee members by Barry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate who picked Burch for the job.

Goldwater had said firing Burch would be "a repudiation of me" and "those Republicans who have supported me and the principles for which I stood."

Similarly, Burch said his resignation has been urged on the ground that he is a symbol of Goldwater and "of the so-called 'conservative faction' of the Republican party."

"If this is true," Burch said, "then my resignation under pressure at this time would clearly be interpreted as a full repudiation by the Republican party of all those voters who identified themselves with responsible conservative Republicanism."

Several of those commenting in the AP survey noted that no other candidate for the job was on the horizon and that "personalities" were involved.

Tiburon Volunteers Seek Advisory Posts

About 10 Tiburon Peninsula residents have volunteered as candidates for a citizens planning advisory committee. Today was the deadline for applying.

Tiburon City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose reported no date has yet been set for a planning commission-city council screening committee to consider the volunteers. The full council and commission will then consider the applicants.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

New Supervisors Due To Take Their Seats

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will start its 1965 year with two new supervisors and a reorganization at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center.

Ernest N. Kettenhofen and Thomas T. Storer, newly-elected supervisors, are scheduled to take their seats at the board session for the first time.

Supervisors will elect a chairman and a vice chairman.

The new board is scheduled to receive a recommendation from County Administrator Alan Bruce that it approve a new budget schedule that will allow the board to adopt the 1965-66 county budget by June 30.

During its afternoon session, the board will again consider a proposal that it join with the City of Tiburon and the Strawberry Recreation District to purchase tidelots off Strawberry Point to prevent bay filling. The discussion is scheduled for 3 p.m.

Romans ruled Britain for 400 years.

Two Hurt In Crash

Two persons were slightly hurt in a spectacular crash involving two cars and a dump truck at a wye on the Shoreline Highway near Highway 101 at 3:35 p.m. Thursday.

The California Highway Patrol said the car driven by Kenneth K. Paardekooper, 22, of San Francisco was going northwest into the wye at the same time the truck, driven by William R. Whittington, 29, of 924 Meadosweet Drive, Corte Madera, entered it from the opposite direction.

The impact caused one of the big truck's two rear axles to break loose, and the truck turned over. The axle kept going and crashed into a car driven by Charles R. Prchal, 24, of 402 Pine Street, Tamalpais Valley.

Whittington and a passenger in Paardekooper's car, Marlene Morelli, 22, of San Francisco, were both treated at Marin General Hospital, he for a scalp cut, she for a bruise on the mouth.

North America's smallest and rarest bear is the Blue or Glacier Bear, which stands only two feet high at the shoulder. Its habitat is the Mount St. Elias region of southern Alaska.

Mexican Church Collapse Kills 60

RIJO, Mexico (UPI) — The Rev. Ezequiel Olivares and at least 60 of his parishioners were crushed to death yesterday when the reinforced concrete roof of a newly built Roman Catholic Church collapsed during the morning mass.

Sometimes estimates of the dead ranged as high as 71. Forty persons were injured, half of them seriously.

Almost every family in this remote mountain farming community contributed a victim. Hundreds of grieving citizens gathered at the church last night and this morning searching for relatives still believed buried in the rubble.

"It happened so fast nobody had a chance to run," said Alfonso Escamilla, one of the survivors. "I heard a noise and looked up. The middle of the roof seemed to be crumbling. I was near a door but I couldn't get out."

Many of the men, women and children trapped in the collapse had helped to build the church. Supporting timbers under the nave of the building had been removed Saturday.

Although the church had been dedicated Dec. 14, the building was used in services for the first time yesterday.

Several hundred worshipers were in the church at the time of the collapse. Most of those who escaped were in the back of the church where the roof was not yet completed. Those under the domed nave, including the priest, caught the full force of the crumbling roof.

Hoover Says Reds Wooing Nation's Youth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says the Communist party is trying to increase its influence in the civil rights movement and step up its recruitment of American youths.

Hoover made the statements in a report to acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach on FBI activities during 1964. Warning that the Communist party is a continuing threat to the nation, Hoover said:

"The party is making every effort to increase its influence in the racial struggle and continues to promote the false impression that it is a legitimate political party.

"It has assigned priority to a recruitment campaign aimed at gaining new members from the ranks of America's youth. To implement this program, it initiated a new national Marxist youth organization last June — the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America.

"Chapters of this group have already appeared on several college campuses."

Hoover did not name the colleges.

Air Crash Kills Fourth Victim

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI) —A 17 - year - old Missoula, Mont., youth whose parents and sister died when their plane hit a mountan, succumbed himself Sunday night in the University of California at Los Angeles Medical Center.

Attendants said Richard Stockhill died at 9:36 p.m. as the result of burns over more than 50 per cent of his body.

Also killed when the plane slammed into Frazier Mountain near the Ventura - Los Angeles County line on Dec. 30, were George Stockhill, 39, his wife, Blanche, 31, and their daughter, Debra, 6.

Stolen Cars Abandoned After Crash

Two cars were stolen from within a few blocks of each other in San Rafael early yesterday, then abandoned together after one was wrecked on Highway 17 a half mile west of the San Quentin turnoff.

Owner of the demolished car, Fred J. Scheuer of 19 Latham Street, was not aware it had been stolen from his garage until notified of its discovery by San Rafael police.

The California Highway Patrol found Scheuer's 1953 Oldsmobile sedan about 60 feet off the roadway at 3:15 a.m. Parked on the shoulder was a 1955 Chevrolet station wagon which had been reported stolen at 1:15 a.m. by John R. McBain of 317 Bayview Street, San Rafael.

Officers surmised the cars had been stolen by companions, who then took them out on the highway for a race, abandoning them after one crashed.

Native Daughters To Discuss Fete

Representatives or Marin County's eight parlors of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at 80 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael, to discuss plans for the Admission Day celebration which will be held in San Rafael Sept. 8-10.

BURNING OF THE GREENS SCHEDULED, RAIN OR NO

Corte Madera residents have already started piling Christmas greens in the Town Square in preparation for ceremonial burning Wednesday following the Epiphany pageant at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church. Church officials said today the ceremony would be held in spite of bad weather.

The pageant will start inside the church at 7:30 p.m., with Yates Greer, director of Christian education, as narrator of the story of people going to worship the infant Christ in Bethlehem.

Jane Westergaard will play Mary and Don Lewallen will act as Joseph. Sunday school second graders will come to the altar as adoring children, and third graders will stand behind the altar as angels. The three Wise Men will be played by Jay Westergaard, Stephen Irey and James Marc Jr. Rev. Tod W. Ewald will symbolize the "essence of Epiphany."

After lighting of candles, the congregation will file outside and greens piled up on the square will belighted.

More State Help Sought For Mentally Retarded

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A revised, stepped-up program to help California's mentally retarded adults and children has been proposed to Gov. Brown by a special commission.

It said in a report released Saturday that the state should spend $5.71 million this year to aid the one out of every 50 Californians hindered by mental retardation.

The Study Commission on Mental Retardation endorsed the current policy of keeping retarded persons as close to home as possible. However, it said an additional 4,150 beds should be provided in state hospitals to handle the current waiting list, and future demands.

Brown, who has said he will not propose any new programs, commented that he will ask the 1965 legislature for "a permanent, comprehensive program for coming to grips with . . . mental retardation."

The main recommendation of the commission was for a Mental Retardation Program Board that would direct current and new services at a first-year cost of $2 million.

The group also called for spending $900,000 on six regional centers to diagnose and counsel retardation cases. Ten more of the facilities were proposed for the future, the aim being to put such a center within two hours driving time from every family.

An expenditure of $500,000 was urged this year to set up such things as schools or foster homes for those who must be cared for away from home.

To make retarded adults as independent as possible, $1.19 million in state money was asked, with another $1.87 million coming in federal funds.

More child care centers would cost $722,000 in the first year, another commission recommendation reported.

Department Store Cash Box Stolen

San Rafael police learned Saturday of the disappearance of a cash box containing $150 from a safe at Mac Department Store, 555 Francisco Boulevard.

Ernest Chin told police he placed the cash box in the safe shortly before manager Jay Howard locked it at 9 p.m. Wednesday. It was not missed until Saturday.

Hangover Pills Are Selling Well

A Sausalito druggist has been doing a booming business with his own brand of hangover pills, thanks to the holiday season and a sudden rush of free publicity from Bay Area radio, television and newspaper interviews.

Frederick S. Mayer, 31, of 587 Thornwood Terrace, Terra Linda, owns the Sausalito Rexall Pharmacy at 701 Bridgeway, Sausalito.

In time, he may well find himself giving up the sales end for full-time production of his "Reprieve" pills, which contain ingredients designed to neutralize all of the adverse after-effects of drinking alcoholic beverages.

He began marketing the pills a year and a half ago. But it was only within the last couple of weeks that he really found himself in the spotlight.

A newspaper story led to a television interview. This was followed by telephone calls from a San Francisco radio "talk show," and more newspaper stories.

Business has not suffered as a result, he reported this weekend.

Stores all over the Bay Area are selling Reprieve, he said, "and now I am working on a wrinkle cream."

Traffic Gore Surpasses All Experts' Fears

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation ended its three-day observance of the New Year at midnight Sunday, breaking all previous traffic death records for the holiday and surpassing the worst fears of traffic experts.

Highway accidents during the 78-hour period claimed 453 lives, passing the New Year's high mark set during a four-day holiday in 1955-56 when 409 persons died. The previous three-day record was 374 in 1959-60.

Before the holiday started, the National Safety Council estimated that between 300 and 360 person might be killed in traffic.

California, with 69 fatalities, recorded the highest number of deaths and broke its three-day New Year's record toll of 46, set in 1960.

A spokesman for the California Highway Patrol, Kent Milton, said he is "sure alcohol will be found to be a tremendous factor" in accounting for the bleak total.

For comparative purposes, The Associated Press counted traffic deaths during a non-holiday three-day weekend last month. The total then was 396.

Last week, 578 deaths were counted during the three-day Christmas period.

California's toll far surpassed the next nearest state—Texas, with 45 fatalities. New York and Illinois followed with 24 each. Only eight states went through the holiday without a traffic death — Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, North Dakota, Vermont and Wyoming.

The safety council said 1964 traffic deaths are expected to reach a record 48,000. The council plans to report the 12-month totals later this month.

Assassination Bill Dropped Into Hopper

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bipartisan group of 11 House members introduced bills today to make it a federal crime to attack or assassinate a president.

The sponsors included Rep. Gerald R. Ford, (R-Mich.) a member of the Warren Commission which investigated the 1962 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, (R-Pa.) leader of the group, said the bills also would cover the vice president, or other official next in line of succession to the presidency, a president-elect and a vice president-elect.

The legislation would give federal law enforcers power to investigate crimes of this sort.

Federal agencies, such as the FBI, now only take part unofficially in any investigation of this type at the invitation of local authorities.

$77 Sweater, Blouse Stolen From Store

Theft of a sweater and blouse worth a total of $77.50 from Les Girls Dress Shop, 1299 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was reported to police Saturday by owner Maxine L. Ernst.

Missing, she said, were a $50 black sequined sweater with white mink cuffs and a $27.50 white beaded sleeveless blouse, made in Hong Kong.

JOY FOR NEW YEAR

Blind, Deaf Dog Found; Back With Blind Master

A blind Fairfax man and his deaf and blind dog held a joyful reunion at the Marin County Humane Society Saturday.

A. E. Reid's dog, King, a female, had been missing since Wednesday night. Just how the dog was returned to her master is still a mystery.

All the humane society knows is that King was in the holding kennel at 402 Third Street in San Rafael at 8 a.m. Saturday. Whoever put her there just left a note saying "found on Bolinas Road," and left no name or other information.

Reid lives at 418 Bolinas Road. King has been with him for 17 years, since she was a pup.

The dog has grown deaf and blind with age, but as soon as Reid appeared Saturday, one sniff of the air told her he was there and her tail started wagging.

Reid said the dog has an extra sharp sense of smell and keeps track of her whereabouts that way. But somehow she got lost shortly after meeting Reid Wednesday night when he returned home from San Francisco where he operates a cigar stand each day.

She was missing when Reid put out her food at 7 p.m. and a search of the area with the help of neighbors failed to find the dog. Reid had a guide dog, too, but it died last July.

Reid thanked his anonymous benefactor and the Independent Journal which ran a story on the missing dog Thursday.

Padded Cell Used To Quiet Novato Men

Two men arrested by Novato police early yesterday threatened the families of the arresting officers and had to be placed in a padded cell at Marin County Jail.

The arrest started when police responded to a report of a noisy party on Indian Valley Road near the Novato city limits.

Sgt. Otto C. Haiungs, Patrolman Oliver Sansen and Police Cadet Richard Longshore found Kenneth Kluever, 21, of 720 B Street, San Rafael, and Robert Leonard Frank, 20, of 201 Castro Road, Forest Knolls, sitting in a car parked opposite 1417 Indian Valley Road.

Searching the car, the officers found three sharp knives. They arrested the pair on charges of possessing concealed weapons and being drunk in an automobile.

After the arrest, the two men threatened to "get" the families of the arresting officers, the police reported. They were taken to the county jail in San Rafael. At the booking desk there, Kluever struck at Sheriff's Sgt. Wade Powell. Both Kluever and Frank were then placed in a padded cell.

Bail was set at $550 each.

English Prince Turns To Trade

LONDON (UPI)—Prince William of Gloucester, a 23-year-old cousin of Queen Elizabeth, went to work today as a $40-a-week bank trainee. It was the first time in the long history of the British throne that a royal prince had ever taken a commercial job.

Prince William is ninth in line for the crown.

The tradition that princes of the blood royal do not engage in trade is older than the Norman conquest. They are supposed to devote themselves to "public duties"—opening fairs, fairs, laying cornerstones, launching ships and serving as figureheads for innumerable civil and charitable organizations.

Marin Rally Backs Freedom Demo Party

Support for the challenge by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party of five seats in the U.S. Congress was urged on moral grounds yesterday at a meeting in Mill Valley.

Discrimination is against the doctrine of mankind; therefore the challenge should be supported, said Rev. Wesley C. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael.

Rev. Baker was one of four speakers discussing "What does the challenge mean to the northern community, Negro and White?" at a meeting at Brown's Hall attended by about 100 persons. It was organized by the Marin Citizens for the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, according to Mrs. Donald Gillis, one of the organizers.

Two students, Karen Duncan of Novato and Dick Kennedy of New York, both of whom worked last summer for the Student nonviolent Coordinating Committee in Missippi, described some of the roadblocks they found in getting Negroes registered to vote.

A resolution called the "fairness resolution" was to be introduced in Congress today to keep five Missippi members from being seated.

A similar challenge based on voting irregularities was used several times successfully in the 1800s, said Douglas Ferguson, San Francisco attorney, another of the speakers.

Richard Bancroft, newly elected head of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People in San Francisco, said he was amazed at the amount of emotion displayed by people at the Democratic National Convention toward the Freedom Democratic Party's delegates.

Agreeing with Baker that people should try to depose the five Mississippi congressmen because their election was illegal and immoral was Robert O. Berdahl of Sausalito, professor of political science at San Francisco State College.

Berdhal, who acted as chairman, suggested the audience support the challenge and urge that Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) also support it.

Hub School Budget On Agenda

Priority needs for the 1965-66 San Anselmo School District budget will be discussed when the district trustees meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the faculty room of Isabel Cook School.

The district trustees will air their ideas on 1965-66 budget needs with Supt. Stephen L. Parodi, but no dollars-and-cents proposals will be discussed.

The trustees will learn that declarations of candidacy in the April 20 trustees election must be made between Jan. 11 to March 5. The terms of office of Robert W. Corlett, Joseph E. Tilt and Howard M. McKinley all expire on June 30.

Revisions of policy on board vacancies and fair employment practices will also be discussed.

Vallejoan Injured In Overpass Mishap

Juanita Blake, 22, of Vallejo, suffered a cut nose when her northbound sedan crossed Highway 101 and bounced off a guard rail on the opposite side of the San Rafael overpass at 8:10 a.m. Saturday. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Ship Buffeted By Towering Atlantic Seas

NEW YORK (UPI)—It was a New Year's to remember, tossing on the stormy Atlantic.

And the 807 passengers from the liner Independence were happy to be safe on shore today where they could recall it and laugh. The 26,000 ton vessel was a day late in docking because of the 60-foot seas that forced it to heave to for 40 hours off the Grand Banks.

For Lt. Col. and Mrs. Hugh Rhodes, USAF, New Year's Eve meant an unwanted and unappreciated swim in their cabin. The couple was sleeping when a towering wave rose 50 feet above the waterline and smashed in their window.

Half a ton of frigid sea water doused them and tossed them about the room. Fifteen other passengers were bruised in the pitching and rolling and one crewman suffered a broken ankle.

"It was like riding a roller coaster," the ship's master, Capt. Charles Reilly, said Sunday. He said it was the worst storm he had encountered in more than 40 years at sea.

Reilly brought the Independence in at 7 a.m. Sunday, about 24 hours later than scheduled.

Reilly said there was no way to avoid the storm that stretched over a 1,110 mile area. So he held the ship at 2½ knots—enough to keep it headed into the waves—and just held on.

School Out Early

Schools in the Dixie School District will be let out early tomorrow to permit faculty members to attend the funeral of teacher David M. Edward.

Link Found In Robberies

A positive link between a $6,000 New Year's Day robbery at a San Francisco restaurant and a similar job Dec. 20 at a restaurant near Sausalito was reported Saturday by the Marin County Sheriff's Office.

Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia said one of nine persons locked in a back room at the New Southern Restaurant, San Francisco had identified one of two artist's sketches from the robbery at the Buckeye Restaurant on Highway 101.

Eight persons were locked up by two well-dressed, deliberate bandits in the Dec. 20 haul, when a total of $890 was taken.

Young Democrats Urge Cease-Fire

RIVERSIDE (UPI)—The central committee of the California Federation of Young Democrats (CFYD) last night urged an "immediate unsupervised cease fire in South Viet Nam."

The resolution was one of several adopted at the conclusion of a two-day meeting attended by some 350 delegates.

The Young Democrats' central committee also denounced Indonesia's threatened withdrawal from the United Nations, supported the University of California student "Free Speech Movement," and rapped the proposed Multi-Lateral Nuclear Force (MLF) as "ill-conceived, strategically unnecessary and politically ill-advised."

MURPHY TO TAKE SENATOR'S OATH

23 California Demos, 16 Republicans To Be Sworn In Lower House Ceremony

WASHINGTON (AP) — The California lineup for the opening of the 89th Congress today was 23 Democrats and 17 Republicans—a gain of one for the Republicans.

Former actor George Murphy, who unseated former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger as the successor to the late Sen. Clair Engle, takes the oath of office as senator, the 31st in seniority among 32 Republicans.

Murphy's election returns California to an all-Republican Senate team for the first time since 1959, when Engle was elected to succeed Republican Sen. William F. Knowland, and breaks the California tradition of having one senator from the north and the other from the south.

Both Murphy and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, the Senate Republican whip, have their homes in Southern California.

Murphy arrived in Washington Sunday night, checking in at the Statler Hotel. He plans to move Tuesday to the Jefferson Hotel, where he will live indefinitely. Mrs. Murphy, who came with him to witness the swearing-in ceremonies, will return to California Tuesday. She plans to live in their Beverly Hills home for the present.

Murphy's son, Dennis, 25, a student at the University of Southern California, and his newly married daughter, Mrs. Robert Ellis, and her husband, also arrived to see their father take office.

Other guests for the occasion are Murphy's brother, Charles T. Murphy; his sister, Mrs. V. A. Fisher; Mrs. Robert Hitt, former California GOP national committeewoman; Mr. and Mrs. Arch Monson of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. James Hall of San Diego.

All of California's 38 House members take the oath of office together in a mass ceremony in the House chamber. Despite three new faces in the delegation, the party line division in the new Congress remains the same at 23 Democrats and 15 Republicans.

John V. Tunney, Riverside, son of former heavyweight boxing champion Gene Tunney, defeated Republican incumbent Patrick Minor Martin in the Nov. 3 election.

Republican Ed Reinecke of Tujunga picked up the former Democratic seat vacated by Rep. Everett G. Burkhalter of North Hollywood.

The third House newcomer is Democrat Ken W. Dyal of San Bernardino who succeeds the retired dean of the California delegation, Rep. Harry R. Sheppard, Ycaipa Democrat.

Bus-Auto Collision Injured Motorist

A San Francisco man was slightly hurt when his convertible ran into the side of a Greyhound bus on Highway 101 near Sausalito at 6:05 p.m. Saturday.

Victor W. Bowker, 34, suffered a minor injury to one hand, according to the California Highway Patrol. His southbound car changed lanes abruptly and hit the left side of the bus, driven by Richard K. Carmoney, 40. Bowker was cited for an improper lane change.

LBJ's State Of Union Talk May Bare Tax Cut Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may take the wraps off some tax-cut and budget secrets in his State of the Union message tonight.

First, however, he accepted an invitation to attend special religious services marking the opening of the 89th Congress. The morning services were scheduled at the National Presbyterian Church, eight blocks from the White House.

The President was still putting finishing touches on his annual message, to be delivered personally at a joint session of the Senate and House at 9 p.m. EST. The speech, which the President hopes will set guide marks for the work of Congress in the busy year, will be broadcast live by television and radio networks.

Johnson was departing from tradition in making it an evening speech. Most presidents have addressed Congress during the noon hour but Johnson wanted to get maximum television and radio exposure in unveiling a preliminary blueprint of what he calls his "Great Society" program.

The chief executive will touch on major legislative proposals to be submitted in the weeks ahead. But he was not expected to go into detail on these, leaving that for special messages to be sent to Congress later.

If he follows last year's pattern, he also will disclose the broad outlines of the new federal budget to be submitted later in the month. For the second straight year he was expected to announce annual federal spending at less than $100 billion.

There was a possibility, too, Johnson would put a dollar figure for the first time on the size of the excise-tax cut he will ask Congress to approve effective July 1. There has been speculation the proposed tax cut might approach $2 billion.

The treaty ending the War of 1812 was signed by American and British emissaries at Ghent, Belgium, on Dec. 24, 1814, but the news did not reach the United States for many weeks. In the meantime, the Battle of New Orleans broke out on Jan. 8, 1815.

Peace Corps Test Slated Saturday

The Peace Corps placement test will be given at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Room 7 of the San Rafael Post Officer, 910 D Street, as well as some 800 other spots throughout the nation.

The test includes a general aptitude section, lasting about one and a half hours, plus an optional Spanish or French achievement test, lasting another hour.

CALIFORNIA STORMS GO ON, AND ON

Thousands of winter sports fans had to dig their way out of Sierra ski resorts such as Soda Springs below Donner Summit (left) while new blizzards had major highways opening and closing almost hourly yesterday. In coastal lowlands such as Scotia Bluffs, Humboldt County (center), transportation still is limited to air travel or foot slogging. More than 100 miles of Northwestern Pacific rails were washed out including this scene surveyed by Fortuna student Tom Pendergass, who must hike from his home in isolated Rio Dell. # Sacramento Looks For Long Session

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gavels fell at high noon today to call the California legislature into session for 1965, amid forecasts the meeting would be long and bitter.

The constitution provides the session may run for only 150 calendar days, not counting weekends. However, if work is not completed by the deadline, the legislature may continue under the device of a special session called by the governor. This has occurred frequently in recent years when agreement could not be reached on a budget.

The traditional "state of the state" message of Gov. Edmund G. Brown, normally delivered to a joint session of the two houses soon after organization, will be delayed until tomorrow. While no specific reason was given by the governor's office for breaking of the tradition, it was believed the governor's message might be snowed under by the avalanche of news reports on the President's state of the union

Regardless of the delay, most of the lawmakers know exactly what is in prospect for them between now and the adjournment day, whether it comes in June or September. First off, there's the order of a Los Angeles federal court that the state senate must be reapportioned on a population basis by July 1.

Ceremony Slated For New Judge

Installation ceremonies for Judge Harold J. Haley, new Marin Superior Court judge, are scheduled for 4:15 p.m. tomorrow in Department 2 of the San Rafael courthouse.

Oath of office will be administered by Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating. Peter Allen Smith, public defender and president of the Marin County Bar Assn., will preside.

Judge Haley, former Marin Municipal Court Judge, was named by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to replace Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., who moved up from Superior Court to the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

Replacement of Judge Haley on the municipal bench is still pending.

Cleric Files Brown Recall Documents

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A petition for the recall of Gov. Edmund G. Brown was filed today by a Contra Costa County organization.

The group, headed by the Rev. C. Fain Kyle, listed 35 reasons why Brown should be removed from office.

After filing the petition with the Secretary of State's office, Rev. Kyle said, "We are to be advised later how many signatures are needed. Regardless of the number, however, we are sure we can gain enough to recall Mr. Brown."

Rev. Kyle, of Richmond, serves as presiding bishop of the Conservative Christian Churches of America and as executive director of the Dedicated Independent Society Committee Against Racial Demonstrations.

There was no immediate comment from Gov. Brown's office.

Kyle said he was sure all those people who signed petitions to place Prop. 14 on the

Underground Lines County Tax Proposed

Putting the cost of underground utilities in new subdivisions on the county's taxpayers was suggested today at a meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission.

The suggestion was made as commissioners discussed a proposed ordinance requiring undergrounding of electric and telephone lines in new subdivisions. Action on the ordinance was put off until Feb. 15, with the planning staff asked to make further study of cost and other factors.

"The costs are on the wrong people," said Carl S. Brown, representing Associated Home Builders, of San Francisco and Marin. "We feel it is the responsibility of the utility companies to put them in."

Attorney Bryan R. McCarthy said, "Let's not put the cost on the subdivider and the people in that little unit."

Commission Chairman Niels Schultz Jr. said, "we must consider if it is for the general welfare, and therefore look at the distribution of costs."

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg said that if the philosophy is that those who enjoy the benefit pay, then the costs could be borne by the public rather than the individual.

John Hellstrom of the Reedlands Property Owners Assn., said his area had underground utilities which residents like and the costs were included in the sale of the lots.

The hour and a half discussion opened with a display of colored slides by E. B. Langley Jr., North Bay division sales manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. Langley said the company is progressively installing underground distribution systems and expects costs to decrease.

The costs vary depending on whether there is a full underground system, or a partial underground system, known as the "streamlined" system, which inciudes metal poles.

Brown said the "streamlined" system at San Marin cost $325 a lot, and a system in San Rafael with larger lots cost $525 a lot, not including telephone or television cable.

Mill Valley Boy Held

A 16-year-old Mill Valley youth was cited by police at 11:00 p.m. Saturday on charges of attmepting to steal a car from Larry Brink Motors used car lot at 420 Miller Avenue.

Officer Douglas J. Stone, one patrol, found the youth at the lot. The boy, a Tamalpais High School student, admitted trying to take a white 1960 two-door Chevrolet, Stone said.

Year-End Review Lauds GOP Central Committee

The 1963-64 Marin Republican Central Committee posted an "excellent" record, winning four out of five races last November, according to a final report of activities submitted by Chairman Gerald E. Misner.

Election of new officers is set for 8 p.m. today in the courthouse.

The chairman credited "effective organization and excellent performance by many Republicans" for the victories of Sen. George Murphy, Rep. Don H. Clausen, State Sen. John F. McCarthy, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley.

The fifth race, the only one lost by the Marin Republicans, was the presidential.

Misner noted that the Republican Central Committee faced a "rugged position" in trying to heal the split between the moderate and conservative factions in the party.

"As a whole, wonderful cooperation was given by most members and associate members of the County Central Committee," he said.

A number of "firsts" were established by the 1963-64 Republican Central Committee. Among them were the appreciation dinners for Congressman Clausen, Senator McCarthy and Assemblyman Bagley.

The first "unity dinner" was held to unite all groups behind the Republican candidates.

More Republicans registered and voted in Marin County than ever before.

Marin now has its largest number of members and associate members on the State Central Committee and the First District Congressional Committee.

Vandals Strike At Gas Station

Vandals made a real mess of things at the Flying A Station, 1304 Second Street, San Rafael, police were told Thursday.

Police said the vandalism included:

Eggs, tomatoes and bananas hurled at the station.

Market Has A Loss In Moderate Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed with a loss today in moderate trading.

The list was mixed in early trading as the 1965 stock market year got under way. It soon began to lose ground and was off substantially by noon.

Prices held fairly steady at the lower level.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.3 million shares compared with 6.53 million on Thursday.

General Motors sank more than 2 points as Du Pont made distribution of its final 23 million shares of GM stock. Du Pont rose more than a point.

Most other motors were lower, Chrysler losing nearly 1.

Steels were unchanged to lower, affected by President Johnson's request to his economic advisers that they look into recent price increases for galvanized sheet steel.

Caution overhung Wall Street on a number of unanswered questions about 1965 — steel labor negotiations, the British pound and the investment climate.

Also down about 2 were Lukens Steel, Florida Power & Light, Grumman, Allied Stores and Norfolk & Western, and Sears, Roebuck.

Redwood Reports Rise In Earnings

Redwood National Bank reported today that it had experienced substantial growth over its year-end figures of 1963.

President Byron W. Leydecker said total resources were up from 12.4 million dollars on Dec. 31, 1963 to 16.9 million dollars in the year just ended. Deposits gained 40.6 per cent, from 10.6 million dollars in 1963 to 14.8 million dollars in 1964.

Total earnings after taxes were reported at $77,725 for 1964 —up from $35,896 in the year before. This represented earnings of 45 cents per share in 1964 as compared to 22 cents per share if there had been an equal number of shares in 1963. (Redwood split its stock two for one from 86,000 shares outstanding last April to 172,000 shares).

Earnings per share before taxes increased from 27 cents in 1963 to 52 cents in 1964 on the adjusted number of shares. Loans also increased from 7.6 million dollars to 9.9 million dollars, a gain of 31 per cent during the year.

California's Economy Has Its Problems

By MILTON M. TEAGUE
President
State Chamber of Commerce

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California's 1965 economy should continue the long-term trend of growth and expansion evidenced since the early 1950's, provided we are able to solve some very serious problems, among the foremost of which are the supplemental farm labor situation and the maintenance of a favorable business climate.

Farming, being our number-one industry, will spread far and wide, throughout the entire economy, the effects of termination of the "bracero" program if an adequate substitute is not found early in the year.

If this serious problem is solved quickly, California agriculture could experience an unparalleled prosperity with a gross income during 1965 as high as $3.6 billion.

Without a solution to the supplementary labor problem, this probably could not be attained.

We anticipate a population increase of about 581,000 during 1965, and this will make itself felt favorably in many fields. Retail sales, for example, will probably reach $31.4 billion compared to $29 billion this year. New car sales should reach 820,000 compared to an estimated 800,000 for 1964. Civilian employment should rise to 6,835,000, compared to 6,642,000 for this year.

Personal income should go up another $2.5 billion from $56.3 billion in 1964 to $58.8 billion in 1965.

If California holds down its spending and taxation to meet only essential needs — thereby keeping this state competitive and providing a favorable business climate for full, productive employment in established firms and encouraging the location of new enterprises here—we could experience a sharp rise in non-defense manufacturing industries.

Value added by manufacture in the new year could exceed $19 billion — about 4 per cent above this year's. This is provided that there are no unnecessary new state spending programs adopted, requiring new revenues and becoming a major deterrent to a favorable business climate and to our economic growth of 1965.

If these factors are seriously recognized and properly acted upon, there will certainly be increased investments in new industrial plants and equipment in California, a still - sizeable volume of defense contracts to California-based firms, and an expansion of non-defense manufacturing industries—as well as a continued high volume of new construction.

Coast Prosperity Predicted In '65

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Business activity in California's northern and central counties should advance moderately in 1965 over 1964, a year of record performance.

That conclusion was reached in the annual "Market Outlook" released yesterday by Pacific & Electric Co.

The report foresees a high volume of new housing completions, but slightly under recent peaks; new high figures for personal income and consumer expenditure, and a moderate increase in manufacturing employment.

The report predicts a population increase in 47 north-central counties of about 270,000 persons, a 3.1 per cent gain over 1964.

There's a national sales champion for 1964 in Marin County who turned out a better record than his 300 competitors throughout the county.

This is Larkspur automobile dealer Hil Probert whose agency for Toyota automobiles and Landcruisers leads the entire U. S. field. He won the title both for the best sales and also the agency's post - sales service record.

Toyota has more than doubled its U. S. sales this year over 1963, and Probert is credited with contributing to this increase in a substantial way. The Japanese manufacturer now ranks as the world's third largest producer of commercial vehicles after General Motors and Ford, and places 10th among the world's largest automobile manufacturers.

SEVERAL DAYS AGO, Purity Stores announced it had offered unlimited food credit to flood victims in disaster areas. Applicants were told that all that was necessary was their signature and address on the register tape.

Purity trucks were also sent into disaster areas with additional supplies to cope with possible shortages, and the whole chain joined with the Salvation Army to collect food, clothing, bedding, blankets, flashlights and other necessities, with collection containers being placed in all Purity markets.

The food chain deserves words of commendation for these moves — and for another one which developed as a sequel to the story. It seems one of Purity's largest competitors withdrew its advertising from a number of small newspapers in disaster areas, cutting down their incomes when needed the most. Purity didn't—but kept up its full quota of lineage of ads wherever they could be taken.

Golden Stiller

FOR ABOUT his 10th year, Jess J. France Jr., resident manager in San Rafael for York Securities Corp., will again conduct his 10-week course "Investing Your Money" at Tamalpais Evening High School — starting Wednesday.

He will cover such subjects as history of the stock exchanges, the use of stocks and bonds in personal savings and investment programs and the interpretation of financial statements. There will also be guest speakers on several related subjects.

Registration for the two-hour lecture series can be made at Tamalpais High School.

RICHARD W. GOLDEN of San Rafael has been made national sales manager for the Renauld Division of the Sea and Ski Co. He joined the company in 1961 as eastern division sales manager and has been western division sales manager since 1962 when he came to California. Golden will have his headquarters at the company's Millbrae executive offices, but continue to live in San Rafael.

ROY STILLER of Fairfax, supervising appraiser for San Francisco Federal Savings and Loan Assn., has been named to the Society of Real Estate Appraisers' reviewing subcommittee for 1965. As assistant vice president at San Francisco Federal, he has been with the company since 1954. Earlier he was with Northwest Savings and Loan Assn., San Rafael.

Mossberg

ROBERT L. MOSSBERG Jr. of Terra Linda has been promoted to vice president at the San Francisco headquarters of United California Bank.

Bankers Report Role As Buyers Of State Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO — California banks are playing a leading role in underwriting and distributing state and municipal bonds, according to a study just completed by the California Bankers Assn.

Clifford Tweter, CBA president, said that from Sept. 30, 1953, to Sept. 30, 1964, 7,341 bond issues totaling 10.7 billion dollars were sold by the State of California and its various cities, counties, school districts and other political subdivisions. Of these 4,007 issues involving over 7 billion dollars were purchased at competitive bidding by underwriting syndicates headed by California banks.

California banks also bought 785 issues, totaling $1,146,855,000 of local housing authority notes and other types of short term obligations.

The state itself has been the largest single borrower during the past decade. It has sold bonds principally to finance the veterans welfare program (loans to veterans to buy farms and homes), made loans to so-called "impoverished" school districts for new schools and for state and university buildings.

Automated Alimony

FLINT, Mich. (UPI)—Genesee County here has decided to watch wayward husbands with a wary eye. In addition to keeping track of taxes and cash balances for the treasury, welfare department and memorial hospital, the county's new Honeywell computer will be programmed to look after more than 5.4 million dollars a year in alimony payments.

PIE Announces Net Earnings

OAKLAND — C. G. Zwingle, president of Pacific Intermountain Express Company, has announced net earnings of 3 cents per share for November and an 11 month net of $1.44 per share as compared with $1.25 per share for the same period in 1963. In November 1963 the firm suffered a 1 cent per share loss. PIE gross revenue both for November and for the 11 months is slightly under that for 1963. Net earnings, however, are greater.

Zwingle explained that central accounting savings and efficiency, partly due to the use of computers, operational research advances and capable cost conscious field management, may be credited with the increase net.

Colleges Seek Help From Belligerent Pro Leagues

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National and American Football Leagues, heading for court battles over two college players, plan no disciplinary action against Minnesota and Houston for signing four Oklahoma gridders before their college eligibility expired.

A larger problem confronting the belligerent pro leagues, though, could be whether they plan to co-operate with the schools and each other in eliminating the practices that have aroused the wrath of college officials.

Executive Director Walter Byers of the National Collegiate Athletic Association is hopeful but also realistic about the prospects of co-operation.

"We have urged these people to set their drafts back until after Jan. 1, but they have refused to do it," Byers told the Associated Press last night.

"We've met with them before but not with both leagues together as far as I know. To my knowledge we've never had them in the same room together."

Byers was talking about the possibility of a joint meeting at next week's NCAA convention in Chicago. Both leagues have indicated they would have representatives at the meetings.

The NCAA's concern stems from the signing of four Oklahoma players before the Sooners' Gator Bowl clash with Florida State Saturday. The AFL Houston Oilers signed tackle Ralph Neely, who later also signed with Dallas of the National League.

After The AP learned the NFL would take no action against the Vikings, Assistant Commissioner Milt Woodard said the AFL also would not penalize the Oilers.

Under the AFL's by-laws, Woodard explained, the league definitely would approve Houston's contract with Neely.

"We inherited our by-laws and regulations from the NFL," Woodard said. "Both leagues allow the signing of a player once he is drafted in the selection meeting. The NFL states very specifically that a boy can sign after he is drafted although he cannot play with a club that year.

"We have to go along with that concept. If we have different rules, we're in trouble. We've got to compete with these people."

In the opinion of college officials, the leagues also must co-operate with each other.

Woodard said the AFL is ready to do just that. Commissioner Pete Rozelle of the NFL was not available for comment.

"I think it would be healthy to eliminate this situation," Woodard said. "I think both leagues would have to get together and change their by-laws to eliminate it. If a suggestion is made to change the by-laws, we would co-operate fully as long as we have equity.

"But we cannot do it by ourselves. The NFL would have to go along."

The leagues apparently will get their chance to co-operate at the NCAA convention. Committees of the NCAA and the American Football Coaches Association will meet to discuss the matter of early signings and other subjects of interest to the pros and colleges.

"The only good answer," the NCAA's Byers said, "is if both leagues would agree not to draft players until after Jan. 1 and not to draft a player who has football eligibility remaining. That would solve 95 to 98 per cent of the problem."

Under the present system, both leagues can draft redshirts, players whose original classes will graduate the following June but who have one year of college eligibility left.

One such case was All-America tackle Jim Wilson of Georgia. He was drafted in 1963, then signed a contract with Boston of the AFL before last season and played the entire season for Georgia. He became the season's first double signer when he put his name on an NFL San Francisco contract after the Sun Bowl.

Neely signed with Houston Dec. 1, then decided against playing for the Oilers and signed with the Cowboys of the NFL last Friday after he had been declared ineligible for the Gator Bowl.

Both the Wilson and the Neely cases appear headed for court. They would be the first legal battles since the AFL won three cases before the 1960 season involving Billy Cannon and Johnny Robinson of Louisiana State and Charlie Flowers of Mississippi. Those have been the only court cases between the two leagues.

The Neely and Wilson cases, however, wouldn't necessarily reach the legal battle stage until next summer when they would begin practicing with one of the teams.

"If a boy went with a certain club," Woodard explained, "the other team would have to go into court and get a restraining order."

Although there have been no other double signings, there apparently have been other early signings, technical as they might have been.

It looked like a New Orleans slave market over 100 years ago," said Coach Dave Nelson of Delaware.

SIDELINES

By ED RANDOL

'Futility Bowl' Was Good Show; Good Sports Played In Mud Bowl

Randol

They call it the Futility Bowl but it turned out ot be one of the better pro football shows of the year. The playoff for "second place champions" of the NFL went down to the wire with the St. Louis Cardinals fighting to a 24-17 win over the Green Bay Packers.

This seemingly useless game suddenly became the vehicle for some important considerations. First of all it emphasized the resurgence of the Eastern Conference teams as football powers after years of eclipse by the West.

NEXT, IT WAS a great day for the "little man." St. Louis had them all over the field, and at the final gun they had outplayed the monsters from Green Bay. Most valuable player of the game was Billy Gambrell who stands 5-10 and weights in at 180, dripping.

It is to be hoped that 49er coaches take note of the exceptional play of first and second year men in this game. Coaches have said no new pro is of value until his third year in the league, and have repeated this phrase so often they believe it.

INJURIES CAUSED both clubs to fall back on their rookies and subs, and they came through in great fashion. Certainly the talented youngsters on any club have the right of trial by action if the veterans are not producing results.

I have a sneaking hunch that we saw the two best teams in the NFL yesterday. Cleveland and Baltimore played for the title, but it was key injuries that kept the Packers and the Cardinals out of the title slots. Next year is another year.

The Mud Bowl at Kezar was another story, and another sample of the way winter weather has a way of dimming the lights of a great show. Ice, snow and rain are great levelers; mud is ridiculous.

ISN'T IT ABOUT time for the San Francisco city fathers to do something about returfing Kezar Stadium? It took many years to wipe out the memory of "the worst press box in America." New, comfortable press quarters have made writers complacent about field conditions. I rebel.

Craig Morton of California spent most of the afternoon putting on the goat's horns and taking them off as he led the West team brilliantly one moment and then goofed up the works the next. But, in the end, he deserved the award of most valuable player over Roger Staubach.

AWARD VOTING is completed before the game is over for the convenience of press and radio-TV outlets. This is a practice that should be thrown out with the Kezar turf.

Not too much can be said about the play of the 49er draft picks. Or anyone else. Let's just say they are good mudders and good sports serving a good cause.

Fresh Supplies Help 11-7 Win

By JOE SARGIS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An extra supply of towels and some dry footballs probably had more to do with the West's victory over the East Saturday in the Shrine "mud bowl" game than anything else.

That, at least, was the opinion of a number of East All-Stars today as they reflected on their 11-7 loss to the West in the final minute of the 40th annual charity game at San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.

A driving rain, mud three inches deep and a biting wind sweeping in from the Pacific Ocean made playing conditions in the game about as bad as any anywhere, according to most observers, including head coaches John McKay of the West and Pete Elliott of the East.

The runners weren't able to cut, the passers couldn't get set and potential receivers slipped and fell while running their patterns.

"It was just awful," McKay, head man at Southern California, said. "We never knew who was going to fall down first. Without a doubt conditions were the worst I've ever encountered."

COACHES AGREE

McKay's teams, of course, play most of their games in sunny Southern California where the major obstacle is smog.

But Elliott, whose Illinois teams sometimes are confronted with snow, cold and rain, agreed he has "never seen anything as bad as this."

A number of East All-Stars made it unanimous when they observed "this was no doubt the worst field we've ever played on."

Len Casanova of Oregon said "Don't ever complain to me about Oregon. We get rain, but we've never played on a field like this in all the years (14) that I've been there."

Such adverse conditions called for unusual procedures, and the West came up with them in a supply of extra towels and some dry balls just when both were needed the most.

The East, with Roger Staubach of Navy and Fred Mazurek of Pittsburgh alternating at quarterback, drove to the West 13 early in the third period and four plays later Mazurek cracked over from the one for a 7-0 lead. A 38-yard toss from Staubach to Richard Gordon of Michigan State set up the score.

The West all-stars got back in the game via two safeties—one in the third period and the other early in the fourth—but even then their chances of snatching victory seemed remote.

They needed a break and they got it when the East, bogged down deep in its own territory with 3:11 left to play, was forced to kick. Lou Bobich of Michigan State, who twice previously saw a bad snap from center sail over his head into the end zone for the two West safeties, booted from his one to the 35.

The West rushed in some dry footballs, which it had been hoarding from the start of the game, and had enough fresh towels on hand to keep them dry.

Craig Morton of California, battered, buried in the mud and generally out-classed by Staubach, then began rifling the ball the way California fans knew he could. He missed on three straight passes but hit California teammate Jack Schraub on a fourth-and-10 situation to put the ball on the 25.

Two passes—one for eight yards to Clarence Williams of Washington State and one for seven to Larry Elkins of Baylor—plus a five-yard dash by Williams put the ball on the five.

On the next play, Morton, who recently signed a $200,000 contract with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League, tossed again to Schraub, and Jack fell into the end zone for the winning TD with only 1:04 left in the game.

Both Staubach and Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus said it "seemed" to them that the West always had dry balls to work with. One of the East ball boys said "I don't know where they got them but they sure kept bringing them in."

Little Guy A Big Man In Cards' Playoff Bowl Win

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI (AP) — Billy (Peanuts) Gambrell, one of the smallest players in the National Football League, made himself a big target for Charley Johnson's passes and the St. Louis Cardinals upset the favored Green Bay Packers in the Pro Playoff Bowl yesterday 24-17.

The 167-pound Gambrell, a free agent picked up by the Cardinals from South Carolina, caught two touchdown passes from Johnson, one an 80-yard play, as the Cardinals took a 17-3 lead in the third quarter.

A Green Bay attack in the final period put the Packers back into contention, but the threat died with Jimmy Burson's end zone inerception of Paul Hornung's pass meant for Ron Kramer.

Gambrell who had seen regular service only since mid-season when Sonny Randall was injured, was voted the most valuable player. He caught six passes for 184 yards, setting a playoff bowl record.

It was the first victory for the East in the game of NFL runners-up.

"We looked like we were sleep walking," growled Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi. "We came out of the huddle like we were dying."

The Packers, six-point favorites, moved into an early 3-0 lead on a 40-yard field goal by Paul Hornung.

Johnson took the Cardinals in twice in the third quarter for a field goal and a touchdown for a 17-3 margin.

A 28-yard pass from Johnson to Gambrell put St. Louis on the Green Bay seven, but when Bill Thornton was stopped at the one on his third rush, Jim Bakken was called in to kick the seven-yard field goal.

The Cardinals, who had held Green Bay passer Bart Starr in check with a fierce blitz, threw the Packers back from their own 25 to the 14 after the next kickoff and set up the second touchdown.

After the kickout to the Packer 47, Johnson ran for 15, hit Thornton for 11 and Conrad for seven, then threw 10 yards to Gambrell for the score.

Green Bay's first touchdown came easily. Burson fumbled a punt to Elijah Pitts at the St. Louis 16 and Jim Taylor got across in two plays.

Another St. Louis drive highlighted by a 49-yard pass from Johnson to Gambrell was killed by a fumble after the Cardinals reached the Packer six. Lee Roy Caffey knocked Johnson looose from the ball and recovered.

On the next play, Starr suffered his first interception after 251 throws. Jerry Stovall picked it off and ran 30 yards for a touchdown to make it 24-10.

Green Bay got back in range on a one-yard touchdown lunge by Taylor after a drive in which Starr hit Taylor with a 48-yard pass.

With the Packers needing only a touchdown to get even, Ray Nitschke gave them the chance by grabbing a Johnson pass at midfield and running back to the 23. But Burson's interception saved the game.

AAWU To Revise Rose Bowl Vote

PASADENA (AP)—The Pacific Athletic Conference AAWU has appointed a five-man committee to recommend revisions in its manner of selecting its Rose Bowl representatives.

Robley C. Williams, president of the AAWU faculty council, said yesterday the committee will develop recommendations on the method of selection and the manner of balloting for next year's Rose Bowl contender.

Sports observers had been predicting the move ever since Oregon State was selected over Southern California last month, despite the fact that the two teams each received four votes. The current rule requires that the team that last appeared in the Rose Bowl automatically bows to the other.

Oregon State lost to the heavily favored University of Michigan New Year's Day 34-7.

Stan Bates, Washington State athletic director, was named chairman of the committee. Others are Chuck Taylor, Stanford; J. D. Morgan, UCLA; Bill Hinstreet, USC, and Ray Ellickson, Oregon .

The committee is scheduled to report its conclusions at the spring AAWU meeting June 22-23 at Spokane, Wash.

In its Saturday meeting, the AAWU council said collegiate bowl games have been jeopardized by conduct within the professional football league.

The council noted that "unethical practices in recent years have become more prevalent," adding that signings, which they termed illegal, of four Oklahoma players spoiled the Gator Bowl game .

The council added:

"These illegal signings were needless inasmuch as the players obviously planned to play professional football, and could have signed legal professional contracts after their final collegiate game.

"The AAWU feels that this action has ominous implications for the interests of intercollegiate and professional football."

Catering Boss Succumbs At 84

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank M. Stevens, president of the famed catering firm formed by his father 69 years ago, died yesterday. He was 84.

The Stevens firm operates concessions at 40 race tracks as well as many major league ballparks. Stevens became president in 1934 when his father, Harry M. Stevens, died.

Born in Derby, England, Stevens came to this country with his parents in 1892.

Stevens had been ill recently, and cause of death was arterial sclerosis. He was a widower and is survived by one son, a daughter, two brothers, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

NFL Players Group Seeks Three-Game Title Playoff

Hollywood, Fla. NFL playoff League East-West playoff series replacing the current single championship game was proposed by the NFL Players Association yesterday to boost its pension fund.

The association closed its annual meeting with the announcement that a best-of-three series plan would be presented club owners within a month.

The proposal calls for one game in the Eastern Division titleholder's city, the second in the home city of the Western winner and the third, if needed, in a neutral city.

The primary, etc

The primary source of pension funds is the one NFL playoff game, the Playoff Bowl and money from television and advertisements.

The association also adopted a resolution demanding player representation on the pension committee, as is the case in professional baseball.

President Ordell Braase, a Baltimore Colt defensive end, said player representation will be sought because of "Commissioner Pete Rozelle's abuse of the rights and privileges of players."

Under current policy, the league handles all pension affairs.

The association formed a permanent committee with the responsibility for keeping all retired players informed of their eligibility to receive pensions at age 65.

Braase said some retired players were unaware that they had met requirements. The fund has yet to pay its first retirement benefit.

Seals Edge Seattle For Weekend Split

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Seals take a break until next Friday after splitting a pair of squeakers during the weekend.

They lost 3-2 at Los Angeles Saturday night when Warren Hynes scored with five seconds to go and then survived a similar outburst in the third stanza last night to edge first-place Seattle, 5-4.

In a rough week ahead, Portland comes calling Friday night and the Totems return Sunday. Coach Bud Poile plans to drill his charges all week to get them ready.

In Sunday's game, witnessed by 3,784 of the Cow Palace faithful, San Francisco built up a 5-2 lead after 13:54 of the final stanza and then saw Seattle's Chuck Holmes and Bob Barlow score 24 seconds apart.

Seattle pulled goalie Jimmie McLeod out with a minute left and controlled the puck in a wild offensive display, but could not push it past Bobbie Perreault, who made 30 saves.

Wayne Connelly and Al Nicholson hit two goals each and Len Haley hit what turned out to be the decider. Connelly also scored one Saturday night and wound up the weekend with 23. That ties him for the league lead with Brian Smith of Los Angeles.

80-YARD TOUCHDOWN—Billy Gambrell (3), St. Louis Cardinal end, starts his run to the end zone after catching a pass from quarterback Charlie Johnson in yesterday's Playoff Bowl game between the Cardinals of the NFL Eastern Division and the Green Bay Packers of the Western Division. Giving chase is the Packers' Jesse Whittenton (47), who was beat by four yards on the pass play that covered 80 yards for a TD.

Gallatin New Coach Of New York Knicks

Independent-Journal Sports

16 Monday, Jan. 4, 1965

NEW YORK (AP) — Square-jawed Harry Gallatin came back to his old stomping grounds today to take charge of the New York Knickerbockers with whom he rose to National Basketball Association stardom more than a decade ago.

Gallatin, 37, was named coach of the Knicks yesterday, just a week after he guided St. Louis to a 99-89 triumph over New York and then was promptly fired as coach of the Hawks.

No salary was announced, but it is believed to be in the $20,000-$25,000 bracket.

As Knicks' coach, Gallatin succeeds Eddie Donovan, who was handed the post of general manager. Donovan was in his fourth season as coach. The Knicks finished last in the NBA's Eastern Division during each of Donovan's three complete seasons.

Gallatin takes over the coaching reins with the Knicks buried in last place in the East. The club has won 12 and lost 26 and trails the leading Boston Celtics by 20 games.

Knicks President Ned Irish said Gallatin's sudden availability "hastened our schedule in planning for the Knicks.

"When we engaged Donovan three years ago, it was with the understanding that once the Knicks were revitalized, we would release him from coaching to devote his full energy to build up the scouting, procurement of players and other details of running the Knicks."

Player personnel has changed tremendously since Donovan became coach. Only Dave Budd and Johnny Green remain from the team coached in 1960-61 by Carl Braun.

YOUNGEST TEAM

The Knicks, youngest team in the league as far as players are concerned, have four rookie regulars — Willis Reed of Grambling, Jim Barnes of Texas Western, Emmette Bryant of DePaul and Howard Komives of Bowling Green.

Gallatin, whose Hawks met New York three times this year, said he was impressed with the Knicks' young personnel and added:

"The Knicks are on the way, and I am confident that we will soon be winning."

He said he would try to inject in the Knicks "the winning spirit we used to have in the old days when we beat the Celtics every day and twice on Sunday."

He gets his first look as boss Tuesday night when New York is host to the Cincinnati Royals in the second game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader. In the opener, Gallatin's old club, the Hawks meet the Detroit Pistons.

Gallatin made his NBA coaching debut with St. Louis in 1962 after four successful seasons as coach at Southern Illinois University. His first season he lifted the Hawks from fourth to second in the Western Division and was selected as coach of the year.

Last year, the Hawks again finished second, only two games behind the San Francisco Warriors. They were in second this year when he was fired.

Gallatin, known for his "fighting, feuding and fussing creed" both as a player and coach, was nicknamed the "Iron Man" during his 10 years as an NBA player. He saw action in 682 consecutive regular season games and 64 straight playoff contests, a record since broken by Dolph Schayes and John Kerr.

Gallatin played in the first seven league All-Star games while he was with the Knicks and is the only New York player ever to be named to the All-Star first team. He also holds team records for most rebounds in one season with 1,098 and most rebounds in one game, 33 against Fort Wayne in 1953.

Of his return to New York, he said:

Interception 'Saved' Cardinals

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jimmy Burson's interception "saved the ball game for us." Coach Wally Lemm of the St. Louis Cardinals said yesterday after his team defeated Green Bay 24-17 in the Pro Playoff Bowl.

"We changed our defense for them," Lemm added, "using a four-two alignment, and we tried to give them a different picture on every down. We used a lot of 'red dogging' and that forces you into strict man-to-man coverage."

Lemm said that with Bobby Joe Conrad sidelined by an injured shoulder, he was forced to use Billy Gambrell and Jim Bakken, both will less experience than he wanted.

Gambrell, a 5-foot-10 175-pounder, was voted the outstanding player of the game.

Gambrell, who said he never caught a pass across the line of scrimmage in his college career at the University of South Carolina, caught six for 184 yards and two touchdowns, one good for 80 yards and a Pro Playoff record.

"One was a quick slant pass," he said. "Johnson told me to go full speed and get ready."

Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers, obviously upset at the loss, said:

"We played a poor ball game; looked like we were sleep walking. We came out of the huddle like we were dying."

Asked if he felt his strategy was wrong, he shot back:

"Why don't you ask me why we didn't win? I don't discuss my strategy."

Asked if he had trouble getting his team "up" for the game, he said:

"What's good for one is just as good for another. They apparently wanted to play more than we did. We had enough people although we were hurting for linebackers. Dave Robinson left in the middle of the week because of illness at home, and Dan Currie was hurt on the first series of plays."

Lombardi said the Packers never play the Cards in the regular season so they didn't know any "of their players but that quarterback (Charlie) Johnson looked good and that No. 3 (Gambrell) had a good day."

Records Topple In Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — "Our offense was able to capitalize on their defense," is the way Coach Bill Peterson explained his Florida State Seminoles' 36-19 victory over Oklahoma in the Gator Bowl Game.

It may have been the only football game ever played with nine touchdowns and only one extra point.

FSU felt the absence of placekicker Les Murdock Saturday. He was ruled out on the eve of the game after it was learned he attended the University of Tampa in 1959. There was some question about whether the limit of five years eligibility from first enrollment applied to him.

Oklahoma kicked the only extra point made after its first touchdown. Butch Metcalf put the Sooners ahead 7-6 with the boot. After the second Oklahoma touchdown, he also made the kick, but Florida State was offside on the play and the Sooners took the penalty, trying for two points from the 1½. It failed.

"I guess it was the only point our team ever gave away like that," Coach Gomer Jones said. "But we were behind 24-13 and thought it was worth going for two."

It was a record breaking game in many respects, and the big record breakers were quarterback Steve Tensi and All-America flanker Fred Biletnikoff.

They were the key men in FSU's pro type offense that riddled the Oklahoma defense.

Their records and Gator bowl marks they erased:

Tensi completed five touchdown passes. Galen Hall of Penn State completed three in 1961.

Biletnikoff caught 13 passes for 192 yards. Ronnie Goodwin of Baylor caught 7 for 129 yards in 1960.

The longest pass in the 20-year Gator Bowl history was made by Oklahoma's Ronnie Fletcher to Ben Hart for 95 yards. The previous record was 58 yards by Rauch to Bill Henderson for Georgia in 1948.

It was the highest scoring Gator Bowl game, the 55 total bettered the 48 tallied when Texas Tech beat Auburn 35-13 on Jan. 1, 1954.

Warriors Spread Happiness

BALTIMORE (AP)— Spreading happiness wherever they go, the San Francisco Warriors next travel to Syracuse, N.Y., to play the Philadelphia 76ers on Wednesday.

Losers of the first eight of their nine games of the current road trip, the Warriors now are deep in the cellar of the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

The last two losses came this weekend at the hands of the Baltimore Bullets—129-103 Saturday and 142-132 Sunday. This made nine consecutive defeats because San Francisco lost once before hitting the trail.

The Sunday beating was the work of Bailey Howell and Don Ohl. Howell, a six-year veteran from Mississippi State, connected on all 14 of his floor shots a d scored 35 points. Ohl, a five-year player from Illinois, had one of his hot games and scored 35 points.

The work of these two Bullets, who both played last season with Detroit, more than offset Wilt Chamberlain's 53 points. Baltimore led all the way.

Bruins And Dons Solid Favorites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Once you eliminate speed, shooting accuracy, adhesive defense, rebounding and depth, the UCLA basketball team is just another collection of college kids in satin briefs and cotton undershirts with numbers.

But the Bruins are overwhelmingly favored to eliminate every other Pacific Athletic Conference team this season starting Friday at Oregon when league play begins.

Beating the awesome Bruins is the dream of every other coach in the PAC. UCLA, the defending NCAA champion, lost its first game but has won the next nine, including humiliating previously unbeaten Minnesota and Utah in winning the Los Angeles Classic.

Also getting underway this Friday is a full slate of league openers in the West Coast Athletic Conference. San Francisco is the unanimous choice to successfully defend the title despite the Dons' loss to Santa Clara in the WCAC tournament—the first USF loss in nine games.

There's more non-conference action on tap before Friday, however. Fresno State goes to Stockton to play Pacific tonight and independent Seattle is at Idaho State.

Portland State meets Portland in Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday and Seattle meets powerful Brigham Young in Salt Lake City Wednesday.

In other PAC openers this Friday, California, 3-5, entertains improving Washington, 2 - 6; Stanford, 5-2, hosts Washington State, 2-7, and Southern California, 3-5, travels to Oregon State 6-2.

WCAC Friday action features San Jose State, 4-4, at USF, Pepperdine, 2-7, at St. Mary's, 3-8, UC Santa Barbara, 4-5, at Santa Clara, 3-6, and Loyola, 4-5, at Pacific, 5-4, going into tonight's game.

Hula Bowl Officials Ban Ineligible Sooner Stars

HONOLULU (AP)—Oklahoma football players Ralph Neely and Jim Grisham—banned from the Gator Bowl Saturday because they signed pro contracts—also have been dropped from the Hula Bowl roster.

Walter (Buster) McGuire, managing director of the Hula Bowl, announced Saturday night that Neely and Grisham were informed they cannot play in Friday's game in Honolulu. At first it was believed they would play.

A telegram was sent to both players, who reportedly were in San Francisco, notifying them of the decision.

It read:

"This will advise you that your invitation to the Hula Bowl has been officially canceled as of today, Jan. 2, in compliance with rules which forbid ineligible college players to participate in the Hula Bowl."

Neely, a tackle, and Grisham, a fullback, were declared ineligible Friday for the Gator Bowl by Oklahoma Coach Gomer Jones.

Included in the ban were halfback Lance Rentzel and end Wes Skidgel.

McGuire said replacements will be found for the two Oklahoma players.

Four Fishing Winners Named

Walter I. Matthews of Inverness landed a 27-pounder at Tomales Bay. Bill Robinson of Woodacre got one weighing 12 at Yellow Bluff. Robert Davison of Mill Valley, fishing at Paradise Cove, landed one weighing 10 pounds six ounces, and Joe Soares of Mill Valley collected his 12-pound, eight-ouncer at Richardson Bay.

Coach Praised For Banning His Stars

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. (AP) — There will always be a question whether Oklahoma might have done better against Florida State in the Gator Bowl football game if some of its best players hadn't been declared ineligible because they signed pro contracts too soon.

But George L. Cross , president of the university of Oklahoma, tried to put such thoughts at rest although FSU won 36-19 Saturday.

"It would be unrealistic to say the result would have been different if we had been at full strength," he said. "We would have done better; controlled the ball better, I think. But I am proud of the way Coach Gomer Jones handled the eligibility problem."

Jones also felt Oklahoma could have controlled the ball more if Jim Grishma and Lance Rentzel had been running and Ralph Neely blocking. He ruled them out of the game Friday as soon as he learned they had signed pro contracts.

With the nucleus of a good 1965 team in his second year as head coach of the Sooners, Jones looked ahead:

"We'll be back again, I hope, in the future," he told the Gator Bowl Committee.

REDWOOD CAGERS TRYING TO SHAKE INJURIES

By RALPH CHATOIAN

(Fifth in a series on prospects of Marin Athletic League basketball teams for the 1964-65 season.)

"I just hope we can get well," were the words of Dick Hart, basketball coach at Redwood High School.

Hart's cage team has been plagued with injuries since the season started. And to Hart, who usually is a man with a sense of humor, it's not a joking matter. He's getting downright salty.

Two of the injured cagers who missed five straight games were counted upon for starting roles. Chuck Meyer, a 6-4 junior center, had been sidelined with a bad back, and Charles Davis, a 5-9 senior guard, was nursing a sprained ankle. Meyer played junior varsity ball last year for Redwood and Davis is a transfer student from Indianapolis. Both should be ready when the Marin Athletic League gets underway.

Redwood has two returning varsity performers in Tom Bly, a 6-4 boy who plays both center and forward, and Don Detrick, a 6-2 forward. Both are seniors.

Others up from junior varsity include senior forward Harry Johnson (6-2), and Bob Green, a 6-7 senior who plays center. Boys from last year's "B" team for Redwood are junior forward Bruce McGee (6-1), and junior guards Dave Crossley (6-0) and Russ Smith (6-0). Kevin Wilson (5-7) is a sophomore guard from last year's frosh team. He's only the fourth sopohomore to make a Redwood varsity basketball team.

Bly is the most experienced boy, playing varsity ball for the third year this season. He started some games for the Giants as a sophomore and some as a junior last year. He and Detrick should be the big point makers for Redwood, both cagers averaging about 10 points per game during the first 10 practice contests. Redwood has won three of those games, losing the other seven.

Hart's plans will have Wilson and Smith as the starting guards, Bly and Detrick at the forwards, and Meyer at center. If Meyer is still hobbled by league time, Green may move into the center spot. Davis may also jump into the starting picture at one of the guard positions when his ankle mends.

As you can see, the injury picture will play an important role in Hart's plans. "We've had more injuries this year than ever before," declared Hart. "From blisters to sprains, we've had them."

Hart would not commit himself in picking the league favorites. "They're all going to be close," he says.

Last season the Giants finished the MAL with an 8-4 record, good for third place behind the co-champs of Novato and San Rafael. Their overall record was 18 wins and 10 losses, best in the school's six-year cage history. And like last year, this year's team has the advantage of height.

Redwood opens play in the Marin Athletic League a few days later than the other teams, as the Giants have the opening day bye. First league contest for Redwood will be Jan. 12 against Drake, 4 p.m. in the Larkspur gym. All home games for Redwood this season will be played in the afternoon.

Marin Cage Race Starts On Friday

One more round of pre-league firing remains for local high school basketball teams before they start the Marin Athletic League campaign Friday evening.

One team, Tamalpais, finished its practice schedule Thursday with its initial victory, a 49-47 comeback decision over Healdsburg. The other six teams play today or tomorrow, then gather their ammunition for Friday.

San Rafael is the only school in action today, hosting Lincoln of San Francisco at 4 p.m. Tomorrow, Novato ends two weeks of idleness at Hogan High in Vallejo, Terra Linda plays Castro Valley at home, Redwood is at Santa Rosa, Marin Catholic is at Analy and Drake entertains Petaluma.

With seven teams in the league one gets a bye each day of league play and Redwood is the holdout this first week. The Giants instead will play Washington High of Fremont Thursday, then open their league season with Drake the following Tuesday.

Novato will take the best record into the conference. Coach John Panagakis' team, defending MAL champs with San Rafael, is 5-2 to date. San Rafael (4-4) is the only other MAL five to hold its own in outside competition.

Terra Linda is 3-4, Redwood 3-7, Drake 2-5, Marin Catholic 2-7 and Tam 1-8. These marks are not an adequate basis for predicting what will happen in the league, though, because the competition was harder in some cases than in others.

Most of the coaches seem to feel that Novato is sure to be a contender for the title, but all are confident of a close race. Marin Catholic and San Rafael also have drawn some support.

San Rafael has played good games against Napa and Aragon High Schools its last two times out, but neither of these is particularly strong and the Bulldogs will get a better test against Lincoln. The Links clipped Redwood 57-51 Wednesday.

Marin Catholic has had tough luck in close games recently. They bowed in triple overtime to Mission of San Francisco last Tuesday, blowing a four point lead in the last 18 seconds, and lost Wednesday 68-63 to St. Joseph's of Alameda.

Redwood has ben losing, but coach Dick Hart professes satisfaction with the improvement his team is showing. They played a good game against Harry Ells of Richmond last week before going down 60-49 and followed with a fine first alf effort against Lincoln. Then they fell apart, squandering a 28-20 advantage, so the Giants will be trying to gain some momentum as they finish their practice sked.

Drake has been getting good scoring out of forward Rick Henika, but coach Carl Brown's club has had trouble winning. That's been the difficulty at Tam, also, but coach Ed Chavez hopes that the comeback against Healdsburg signals an about-face for his team.

Terra Linda played its first game in 13 days Wednesday at Crestmoor high in San Bruno and the layoff evidently did the Trojans some good, for they bombed crestfallen Crestmoor 87-54.

DOGNAPPING CASE AT LONDON TRACK

By COLIN FROST

The missing pooch answers to the name of Hi Joe. With six wins in a row on London grey hound tracks he is the bane of British bookies, which may be the cause of the dog's sudden departure.

Hi Joe was hijacked from its kennel north of London late Saturday night while its trainer, Noreen Collin, was away watching two of his stablemates perform at White City Stadium.

The thieves cut through three padlocked doors to get at their victim and took advantage of his friendly nature to spirit him away. Other valuable but less amiable animals were left untouched.

Owner Vic Chancler, himself a bookie, said he valued Hi Joe at $14,000 and immediately posted a $1,400 reward. "I'm ready to talk money," he said, "and I won't ask questions so long as I get the dog back."

Miss Collin said: "We can only hope that Hi Joe was kidnapped with a view to ransom money being paid.

"What we dread is that he was stolen from sheer jealousy or vindictiveness — to be destroyed or harmed.

Hi Joe has been hailed by the fans as the backers' greatest benefactor since the legendary Mick the Miller, who in 1929-30 won a record 19 races in succession.

With six months to go before the greyhound derby, Hi Joe already was a clear betting favorite. As he is only two years old he stood every chance of equalling the Miller's feat of winning it twice.

One police theory is that Hi Joe may turn up soon as a ringer, running under a different name and a coat of paint.

Another theory is that Hi Joe may soon be saying Hi Jane. Puppies bred by him would be worth around $1,500 each.

49er Brodie Favored In NFL Golf

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — National Football League players competed in casual sportswear today instead of pads and helmets — for their annual golf championship.

Favored in the 54-hole event on the Hollywood Beach Country Club course was the San Francisco 49ers' John Brodie, a former touring golf pro.

Brodie and 1964 titlist King Hill of Philadelphia, a three-time winner, have been playing 18 holes daily since arriving at this South Florida scene of the NFL players annual convention.

On hand also was Zeke Bratkowski, twice winner of the players tournament. Bratkowski said practice with the Green Bay Packers for the Playoff Bowl at Miami Sunday made it impossible for him to prepare adequately for the golf competition.

Terra Linda Cagers Top Alumni Team

Terra Linda High School's varsity cage team evened its practice game record at 4-4 Saturday night with a 58-54 triumph over the Trojans' alumni team.

Don Knotts with 15 points, all in the last half, and Kraig Kilby with 11 points paced the Terra Linda attack. Bill Brody of the alumni team, now a member of the fine College of Marin squad, topped the scoring for the game with 16 points, 12 of them in the final period. Kilby, the 6-3 center, hauled down 18 rebounds.

Al halftime, the T. L. varsity boys had a 24-16 lead. The Trojans were ahead by 12 points late in the final quarter, but the alums rallied to come within two points of tying the game. Then, with 18 seconds left in the game, Craig Hill meshed two free throws to give the Trojans the winning margin of four points.

Terra Linda's Class B team beat the junior varsity 58-42, with Bill Muth leading the attack with 21 points. The Trojans next play Castro Valley tomorrow in the T. L. gym, 3:45 p.m., then open Marin Athletic League play Friday against Tamalpais High in Mill Valley, 8 p.m.

Golf Clinic Set For Peacock Gap

Women golf professionals Kathy Whitworth and Carole Mann will conduct a golf clinic Friday, beginning at 12:15 p.m., at the Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club.

The two gals will also hold a nine-hole exhibition match. The clinic will cover the correct golf swing and other fundamentals of the game. The event is open to the public, free of charge.

McCarthy Sees No Re-Mapping Soon

By WAT TAKESHITA

Marin, Sonoma and possibly a part of San Francisco could become one senatorial district, if the state is forced to reapportion its state senate on the basis of population.

This view was expressed by State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) before he left for Sacramento for the start of the 1965 legislative session today.

McCarthy, the Senate minority leader, concedes that reapportionment will be one of the principal issues of the new session. "But I can foresee nothing will happen until 1966."

REAPPORTIONMENT

"Under court order, we may have to take action," said McCarthy. "My position is to strive to go along with that of Congressman (Don H.) Clausen—get a federal constitional amendget a federal constitutional amendment to let the states take care of their own state legislature. We should make every effort to forestall reapportoinment."

If and when reapportionment comes about, McCarthy foresees the possibility that Marin, which now has its own state senator, may have to share a senator with Sonoma and perhaps the Marina area of San Francisco. He said that this combination would bring the population close to the statewide average of 392,000 per senator.

Senator McCarthy pointed out that sparsely populated counties of Northern California will suffer and Southern California will gain heavily by a reapportionment.

WATCHDOG ROLE

Senator McCarthy said he will continue in the role of "watchdog on taxation" during the legislative session.

"The governor is proposing a tax reform—the state withholding tax. I will do everything in my power to defeat that," he declared.

Here are some of the other views and predictions the senator has on the session:

BRIDGE DISTRICT

He and Assemblyman William T. Bagley hope to introduce a bill to amend the laws on the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District so that it would be able to contribute to the study of a second crossing.

Under present law, the district may contribute only to studies that deal with spanning the Golden Gate.

McCarthy said he will also introduce a bill to have an independent audit of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Marin's representation on the bridge board should also be bolstered, McCarthy believes. He suggests that Marin and Sonoma, which have two representatives each, might each be given an additional board member.

RICHMOND SPAN

On the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, McCarthy sees no immediate possibility of lowering the 75-cent auto toll. However, he is keenly interested in the possibility of having rapid transit across the span.

Last year, McCarthy introduced legislation for a study of the feasibility of rapid transit on the bridge. That report, from the Division of Bay Toll Crossings, should be forthcoming this year.

TAXES

McCarthy will introduce legislation that would eliminate taxes on household effects and personal property, which is urged by County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel.

He foresees that tax increases in other fields will be discussed again. Increased sales taxes and additional taxes on beer, alcohol and cigarettes have been mentioned.

Relief for victims of the current Northern California floods could come in the form of federal, state and local loans, said McCarthy. In addition, the senator suggested the possibility of a five-year moratorium on taxes and loan interest for people who lost their homes in the flood.

STATE PARK

McCarthy will continue to work for state land acquisition for the Marin Headlands State Park on military land just north of Golden Gate Bridge.

The state can acquire surplus military land at half the market value, or at no cost if an area is declared to be an historical site.

As for the controversial crankcase devices to cut car smog, which are mandatory on all 1950 to 1961 model cars, the senator will take "another hard look" to see if they are justified.

OTHER LEGISLATION

In the field of education, McCarthy would like to see the state's basic aid to education eliminated, and put state aid on a "straight equalization aid" basis.

The senator's other aims are to push for an early construction of Highway 17, the San Rafael to Point Reyes route; completion of the freeway system through San Rafael and Novato, and legislation to regulate boating and small craft harbors.

He hopes to have senate committees delve into possible abuses in the distribution of unemployment insurance funds.

ECONOMY

McCarthy will again be fighting to keep government bureaus and departments to a minimum.

Last year he opposed the governor's proposal for creation of the Office of Tourism. The office was created but money for its operation was never appropriated and it exists in name only.

"The governor will undoubtedly try to get money for the Office of Tourism again this year," said McCarthy. "My object is to knock it right back for another loop this year."

Marin Youth Off To Europe

Meyer plans to join the Marty-ChrisJohn Trio in Spain to become their manager. The singers are Chris Scheupbach, John Hammond and Jim Carstarphen, all of Mill Valley. Marty White, originally with the group, has returned to Mill Valley and Carstarphen is replacing him.

Meyer said he plans to stay about seven months with the trio.

Marin Talks More Now On Telephone

Not only is Marin County gaining new population constantly, but they all seem to be good talkers, according to information just issued by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Every Marin County exchange shows gain in number of phones for the period Jan. 1-Nov. 30, with San Rafael exchange topping the list at 3,772 new installations.

Total for this exchange was 53,575 but it has jurisdiction over phones with six prefixes, in a territory including not only San Rafael but also San Anselmo, Fairfax, Kentfield, Ross, Terra Linda and Marinwood.

Other Marin totals included: Belvedere, 517 new phones, total 4,790; Corte Madera 446 new, 7,129 total; Sausalito 331 new, 5,671 total; Point Reyes 36 new, 530 total; Inverness 26 new, 453 total; Tomales 15 new, 183 total; Nicasio nine new, 125 total; Bolinas-Stinson Beach 47 new, 796 total.

Chess Challenge

Roy Hoppe of Novato will take on all comers Thursday in a chess exhibition on the lawn at the College of Marin. The exhibition, sponsored by the college's chess club, will begin at 11:30 a.m.

Council To Eye Special Census

The Corte Madera Town Council tonight will consider whether to ask the State Department of Finance to make a special census estimate of the town for 1965. The meeting is set for 7:30 at the Town Hall.

The census, if it shows a major population increase, would mean higher state subventions of certain kinds to the city.

The council will also review firms wishing to design the town firehouse to serve the area east of Highway 101.

'BEST DRESSED'

Winners In The Fashion Sweepstakes

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP

NEW YORK (UPI) — Queen Sirikit of Thailand, in whose wardrobe the twain of Eastern and Western fashion meet, occupied fashion's summit today with the official title of world's best-dressed woman.

The dainty wife of King Phumiphon Aduldet topped the 1964 listing of the first ladies of fashion followed closely by Mrs. John F. Kennedy, her mother-in-law Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, a close friend of the Kennedy clan, Mrs. Charles Wrightsman of Palm Beach, and the former First Lady's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill of London.

COMPLETING THE annual list were film star Dina Merrill, Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt Cooper, Mrs. Alfred Gywnne Vanderbilt, Mrs. William McCormick Blair Jr., of Chicago, wife of the U. S. ambassador to the Philippines, Mrs. Paul Mellon of the Pittsburgh banking family, Mrs. Alfred Bloomingdale of Beverly Hills, whose husband heads the Diners Club, and sisters Anne and Charlotte Ford, daughters of automotive tycoon Henry Ford II.

The listing was based on voting by more than 2,000 fashion authorities and leaders all over the world. The ballot-counting committee noted that Queen Sirikit, 33-year-old mother of four, had dazzled Europe and America with her elegant apparel on recent global tours with her husband. She prefers native costumes of Thai silk alternating with Western clothes designed by Balmain of Paris.

THE COMMITTEE also commented Mrs. Kennedy, who returned to the list after an absence of a year in recognition of her mourning, and her mother-in-law for "perfect taste in dress." It said their decision not to wear deep mourning over a long period "reflected the same sense of discipline and contemporary dignity which the late President always displayed."

'Nude And Subdued' Looks For Spring

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fashion offers women two major looks for spring—the nude and the subdued.

Each is equally becoming, depending on the figure of the wearer. It's just a matter of a woman making a choice between young, swinging skirts inched up two, three and even four inches above the knees, cookie cutter cutouts to expose the epidermis (in bathing suits and evening clothes), and low slug necklines—or of more conservative styles with beauty built from fabrics, drape and color.

THE DESIGNER world is divided into two camps on the spring trends. For instance, Jacques Tiffeau is an exponent of the daring. Tiffeau, designer for both Monte Sano & Pruzan and Tiffeau & Busch, New York, remarked, "the direction is to easy and young clothes. I think we're getting tired of serious, mannered fashions."

THE SKIRTS on the collection for his other firm rode even higher—almost kilt length.

Designer Mollie Parnis took just the opposite tack. Her daytime hemlines for spring covered the knees and there was the easily wearability of natural waistlines and narrow pleated skirts. She also used the prettiness of fabrics and quilted silk print coats over the matching print for dresses.

Said Miss Parnis, "the notion that some of the new clothes will make women look more youthful is nonsense. It only makes them look more infantile . . . I believe most women want to look pretty, chic and sexy, and be seen in lovely clothes that make them look that way."

SO IT WENT, as New York's trend-setting fashion houses today began a 10-day series of shows for the nation's newspaper, television and radio representatives. The New York couture group sponsors the first 44th "National Press Week" seven days of the shows in its with 250 reporters registered. The American designers group then continues for three days.

THESE WERE some of the detailed trends showing in the spring styles:

—"Mobile" skirts, with plenty of pleating, flare, even calmed - down versions of the dirndl. Plenty of apron - like skirts.

—Lengths. Short for day, but moving in for late day and evening the "demi-longueur," hitting about mid-calf.

—Colors, going the great white way, from snow white to bone to creamy white. Plenty of bold black and white prints, with apricot and pink everywhere.

She's Main Influence

Four out of five home improvements are suggested by the women of the house, according to a national survey, and tops on the list of remodeling projects are new kitchens and bathrooms.

Other findings of the survey: The wife is the main influence in 95 per cent of kitchen remodeling jobs, and in 85 per cent of the redecorating projects.

Guild To Hear Director Speak

The Women's Guild of St. Isabella's Parish will meet at 8 p.m. on Tuesday in the parish hall, Terra Linda. The guest speaker will be the Rev. John J. O'Connor, director of the Catholic Social Service of Marin County. His topic will be pertinent to the activities of this vital organization which has caused it to become an integral part of the community since its establishment in 1940.

Children's Theater To Open Season

For the 23rd year children's theater in the Bay Area will be offered to Marin children through the Junior Theatre of Marin, when the first in a series of five presentations will open Saturday, at the San Rafael High School auditorium. The Lesselli Marionettes will give "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" and "Puppet Circus" at 10:30 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. announced Mrs. Douglas Pease of Kentfield, president of Junior Theatre.

THE OPENING PLAY will be an adaptation of the old Arabian Night's tale. Ali Baba, the simple, woodcutter and the sly robber chieftain represents good and evil in the marionette show. This will be followed by a puppet circus with the elf, Winky, the clown on the flying trapeze, Bumpo, a balancing act and the donkey, Fleurette and Oscar, the monkey in the cast.

On Jan. 23 the second production in the series will be given when Marion Hayes Cain, of Magic Circle Productions will offer "Rama and the Tigers."

"The Gold Hat" presented by the San Francisco Players Guild and directed by Martha Bigelow Eliot of Belvedere will be given Feb. 6.

On March 13, the Castle Court Players, will present "Toad of Toad Hall" directed by Douglas Briggs of Mill Valley.

The season will end on April 24 with an original play by Peggy Bridgman of Belvedere, called "Magic in Bannerland." This will be given by the Masque Unit of Junior Theatre and will be directed by Ann Brebner of Sausalito.

MRS. IRVING LIPSCHULTZ is county program chairman. County ticket chairman for the series is Mrs. C. van Vliet, 1620 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax.

Area ticket representatives are:

Belvedere and Tiburon, Mrs. G. B. Talbot of Tiburon; for Ross and Kentfield, J. H. Marshall of Kentfield, Mrs. R. D. Norby of Larkspur and Mrs. William P. Walsh of Greenbrae.

THE 23RD SEASON of theater for children will be presented by the Junior Theatre of Marin, when the opening production will be given Saturday at San Rafael High School auditorium at 10:30 a.m. and at 2 p.m. The Lesselli Marionettes will show "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" in a fast-paced version of the Arabian Nights tale.

The Lucas Valley-Marinwood area is represented by Mrs. Alfred F. Kerr of San Rafael; Mill Valley's chairmen are Mrs. H. H. Korner, and Mrs. E. E. Bebout.

MRS. WALLACE C. PAINTER of Sleepy Hollow is handling San Anselmo and Mrs. C. D. McPherson, represents San Rafael. Terra Linda is represented by Mrs. John A. Miskimen of San Rafael and Mrs. Martin Katzman of Terra Linda.

Mrs. Allen Champie of San Anselmo, is chairman charge of tickets for St. Rita's school, and St. Anselm's school chairman Mrs. Sherman Little Jr. of Kentfield.

Moving, Packaging Changes Set To Benefit Consumers

California consumers will start the new year with some improvements in their rights when buying goods and services, observes Mrs. Helen Nelson, formerly of Mill Valley, State Consumer Counsel.

One change will benefit families who plan to move to another home within the state next year. The State Public Utilities Commission this month adopted regulations on estimates and payments for moving charges.

Previously, Mrs. Nelson explains, when a moving company underestimated the charges and the family was caught short of cash in their new home, the furniture might not be unloaded but placed in storage instead. Now under the new PUC rules, if the actual bill exceeds the estimate by more than 10 per cent, the mover must unload the furniture at the home and give the family a reasonable time to raise the additional money. In many cases this may be seven days.

ANOTHER CHANGE will make it easier for shoppers to find out how much a package contains. The State Department of Agriculture this month announced new regulations for the labeling of packages. The new rules require the statement of quantity to appear on the main display panel of a package and the size of the lettering and numerals are specified.

Though the change will not be immediately visible, shoppers can look forward to seeing some improved labels as the year goes along, with complete conformity to the ruling required by midsummer of 1966.

To handle television and radio problems, a State Bureau of electronic Repair Dealer Registration was established, following a lengthy study of problems and possible solutions conducted cooperatively by TV repair dealers, law enforcement officials, and the Consumer Counsel office. The bureau has been operating about a year, with headquarters in Sacramento and an office in Los Angeles.

Says Mrs. Nelson, "Ethical repair dealers feel they are just about rid of the dirty competition that made it so hard to uphold standards of honesty and competence. And consumers now have some assurance they will be dealt with fairly when they call a repairman to service their radio or television set. If not, they can enter a complaint with the bureau and it will be investigated."

Sewing Class Set

A new class in beginning dressmaking and alterations will be offered Marin County senior citizens at the San Rafael Recreation Center starting Thursday, from 10 a.m. to noon. The course will be conducted by Mrs. Ruth Moscrop. Information may be obtained from the center or from Mrs. Nan Person.

Lingerie Industry Now Has Sizes To Fit Small People

NEW YORK (AP) — This is a short story about petite women who had romantic dreams of climbing into something soft, utterly feminine and ever so elegant after a hot bath at the end of a long day.

It is a sad story because these ladies shopped and shopped and could not find anything cut down to their tiny sizes. There was nothing else to do but make do in out-of-proportion clothes. So they tripped over hemlines.

But this story has a happy ending. The lingerie industry now makes good things for small packages.

With a new fabric that has the fluid, frosty texture of crepe and the temperament of nylon tricot styles gowns into columns and columns of gentle folds gathered below lace empire-cut bodices. Since fabric does not bulk up, it does not fatten the tiny ladies' tiny middles. These as well as matching peignoirs, lie slim and graceful.

Bakes A Cake

If they know you're coming aboard on your birthday or wedding anniversary, one airline will bake you a cake. Through the years, the airline has baked 50th and 60th wedding anniversary cakes and even some 98th birthday cakes. The cakes are presented to the celebrants during flight.

Lindner-Gowdy Nuptial Plans

SHARON GOWDY

The engagement of Sharon May Gowdy and Eric Rennie Lindner of Ross has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer Woodrow Gowdy of Portland, Ore.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Lindner of Ross and the brother of Jane, Maude and Tod Lindner, all of Ross.

Sharon, who has a sister, Suzanne Lee Gowdy, was graduated from Jefferson High School in Portland, and in June will be graduated from University of Oregon, where her sorority is Delta Gamma.

He is a graduate of Redwood High School and University of Oregon, where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Eric is currently attending graduate school at Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Rennie of San Francisco are his grandparents.

A Plea To Designer About Cheetahs

NAIROBI, Africa (AP) — The East African wildlife society has appealed to French fashion designer Marc Bohan to make no more coats out of cheetah skin.

By coincidence pictures of a model in a cheetah skin coat trimmed with mink arrived in Kenya on the very day the wildlife society put aside 1,000 pounds from its funds to discover why cheetahs are dying out.

A team of wildlife experts is about to start a study of the cheetah population of East Africa so that a conservation plan might be drawn up.

"Our fear is that with your great following you may have started a longing for cheetah skin just when our survival study is about to begin," the letter to Bohan says.

"What do we do then?" it asks. "Close with the words: 'extinction of species due to clever fashion designer?' "

She Liked Her 'Amigos' Job In Mexico

Mill Valleyan Stayed On After Others Returned

Margaret Conger of Mill Valley liked her "summer job" so much she held on to it while most of her co-workers went back to school last fall.

But it was certainly not a run-of-the-mill summer job.

Her summer, and the three months which followed, were spent in Zacapu, a town of 30,000 people in the Mexican state of Michocan.

She was one of 130 west coast college students who went to Mexico in June with Amigos Anonymous, a group which 19-year-old Margaret calls a "junior Peace Corps."

The movement got in the news in Marin earlier this year, when some of its members aided Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere in his one-man "alliance for health," helping rural Mexican communities to develop tuberculosis control and treatment programs.

Miss Conger, who lives at 265 Oakdale Drive, stayed with a Mexican family, as did the other girls from Amigos Anonymous. But, until the end of the summer, she relied greatly on her fellow Americans for assistance, advice and moral support.

When school was about to start again in September, and most of the young Americans were getting ready to come home, Margaret made a decision.

"I wanted to try being on my own more, and to see what work I could do on my own," she said. So she made up her mind to stay for another three months.

One reward of her prolonged stay was the chance to see the walls go up on the chapel and social center which was the main project of the Amigos in Zacapu.

She also became involved in a clinic and training center in which 400 girls and women, ranging in age from 16 to 30, were students and trainees. Among the hoped-for results of this program will be to encourage many of the trainees to go into nursing or related fields.

Another reward is her newfound grasp of Spanish, brought about by the simple necessity to meet daily needs once other Americans were no longer around to rely on.

"When I went, I couldn't speak a word of Spanish. Now I am fluent," she said.

Miss Conger's plans are indefinite. She may go back to College of Marin, where she was enrolled last year. Or she may even go back to Mexico for another month or so.

When she does return to school, she will continue a search for the field she wants to enter.

"It might be psychology or sociology," she said.

When she returned to Mill Valley, she was accompanied by six young Mexican girls, all of whose families had hosted an Amigo, who included Marin in a three-week trip to California.

Eager now for more travel, and thinking seriously of going to school in Mexico City later on, Miss Conger admits she can see why many Americans have a hard time adjusting to Mexican life. Particularly hard to accept, she feels, is the "manana" philosophy, which often clashes head-on with the American tendency to get things done in a hurry.

Her main concern about the projects of Amigos Anonymous is the fact that, even after she and other Americans have left, "the work is going on."

Two Air Officers' Car Collide

An Air Force lieutenant's car crashed into one driven by a major on Highway 101 at the Lucas Valley overcrossing at 5:15 p.m. Friday according to the California Highway Patrol.

The patrol said a car driven by Lt. John D. Robinson, 23, of Mather Air Force Base, struck the rear of one driven by Maj. Harold J. Moody, 45, of 122 Westover Circle, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Robinson was treated at the base hospital for a small cut on the chin. Moody also was slightly hurt, but was not treated.

No San Jose Meeting

The meeting of the San Jose School District Board scheduled for tonight has been cancelled. Next meeting of the board will be Jan. 18 at 8 p.m. in the district board room.

Youth, Passenger Hurt In Accident

Robert Edward Massagli, 18, of 530 Midvale Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, and an 11-year-old passenger were slightly hurt when his car ran into a manhole cover at Midvale and Brookline avenues at 7:30 p.m. Friday, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Massagli and 11-year-old Murray Arnold of 254 Flamingo Road Tamalpais Valley, were treated at Marin General Hospital for bruises.

Woman Hurt; Car Hits Hearse

A 23-year-old San Rafael woman was injured on New Year's Eve when she drove on to Bon Air Road from the Marin General Hospital driveway in Greenbrae and crashed into a hearse that was waiting to turn left into the driveway.

Martha Ann Estelle Strom of 14 Bret Avenue was taken to the hospital's emergency room, where she was treated for cut on the lower lip, a bruise on the face, and scraped knees.

Driver of the hearse, owned by Russell and Gooch Mortuary of Mill Valley, was Paul M. Menlio, 24, of 651 Glenwood Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Two Seminars Set

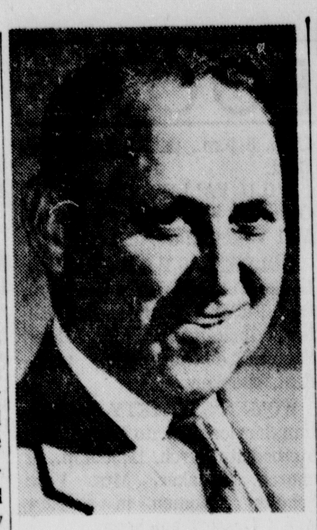
Two seminars will be given by Alan Watts of Sausalito, head of the Society for Comparative Philosophy Inc. of Sausalito, aboard the S.S. Vallejo there. Watts will discuss "Early Chinese Zen" Feb. 13 and 14 and "The Web of Life" on March 6 and 7.



PALSY DRIVE BACKER — William A. Gnoss of Novato, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, has been named honorary chairman of the 1965 Marin County United Cerebral Palsy Assn. fund drive, announced Judson B. Goodrich of San Rafael, association president. The month-long drive will open Jan. 17.

Baker Chorale Rehearsals To Start On Wednesday

Rehearsals for the spring season of the Winifred Baker Chorale will begin at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday in Angelico Hall of Dominican College, San Rafael.

New members will be enrolled from 7 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Spring concerts will include Schubert's "German Mass" in the Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco, and on May 1 the world premier of San Francisco composer Kirke Mechem's cantata, "The Victory of Zorababel." Others will be the west coast premiere of Dominick Argento's "A Masque of Angels," and the United States premiere of Glen Gould's "So You Want to Write a Fugue."

Sausalitan Decorated

Donald Stokes of 667 Sausalito Boulevard, Sausalito, has been decorated by Queen Elizabeth II as a member of the Order of the British Empire.

The announcement was made in the New Year's Honours List at Buckingham Palace, London.

Stokes is head of British Information Services in the western United States. He was news editor of the British Information Services in this country for eight years in Washington, D.C. before being named head of the services with offices in San Francisco.

State Bond Issue Glut Not Simply Campaign Oratory

Republican legislators like San Rafael's Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley have been pointing out this danger for some time.

But when a Democrat as close to the Brown Administration as State Controller Alan Cranston begins sounding similar warnings, the situation must be more critical than most of us realize.

Cranston predicted that within the next decade, the debt service for past construction (interest payments on old bonds) will far exceed the outlay for new construction.

Principal and interest payment on the general fund bonded debt jumped almost 600 per cent in the last 10 years, from 9 million to 62.7 million dollars last year. During that same period, interest payment soared from 6.9 million to 44.4 million dollars.

Cranston warned that bond financing must gradually give way to pay-as-you-go funding to meet California's capital improvements.

He noted that the state has a net general fund debt of about 900 million dollars at the end of fiscal 1963-64, and 295 million dollars in bonds authorized but not yet issued.

Last February, almost a year ago, Republican minority leader, Senator McCarthy of San Rafael issued an almost identical warning.

"The Brown Administration's dependence on bonding as a method of avoiding direct tax increases must inevitably boomerang and result in the return to the sound and safe principles of pay-as-you-go government financing," McCarthy declared in a speech before a Glendale women's group.

"I urge the administration to give careful consideration to the full fiscal impact of financing all capital outlay needs through bond issues rather than on a wiser, more sensible pay-as-you-go basis."

But Senator McCarthy's warning fell largely on deaf ears. That was February of 1964, at the height of the pre-primary campaign. The words were largely brushed aside as political talk.

That it wasn't mere political talk is now becoming evident. With the elections over, one of the top Administration officials comes out with the same type of warning—take it easy on bond financing and get back to pay-as-you-go wherever possible.

It's about time the Administration, legislators and the people of the state pay serious heed to the danger signal that has been flashed, first from the Republicans and now from the other side of the political fence.

We cannot convert to pay-as-you-go overnight, but we must veer away from the growing tendency to turn to bond issues as a sort of panacea to meet every state aspiration.

"YOU'RE GOING TO NEED IT."

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

What U.S. Needs For 1965 Is A Little More Foresight

By RICHARD C. WALD

NEW YORK—If the events now unfolding in Viet Nam are not surprising to most Americans, it is a result of careful indoctrination by the press and, maybe, a growing sophistication on the part of the citizenry. It is not because we seem to be able to predict what is going to happen next in any part of the world vital to us.

THERE WAS A TIME, just over a year ago, when almost everyone not privy to secrets of state, thought of the Viet Cong as a dangerous but not invincible enemy and the Diem regime as a government of some unpleasant characteristics—but basically representative of the country.

As if awakening from a dream, we find that no group is representative of the country, the Viet Cong are constantly growing in strength, and the most-praised features of our war against them—the fortified hamlets—were little more than a hollow sham.

A few months ago, it seems, the Congo was struggling along with Kasavubu on one side and Tshombe on the other and a variety of bad guys in other parts of the chaos. Suddenly, Kasavubu was on the same side as Tshombe and the bad guys are running all over the place with surprising strength and no one seems to have anticipated either development—nobody who was making public noises, at any rate.

WE WERE definitely caught unawares by the Cuba missile crisis. Presumably there are still people in the State Department who think it could never happen, that the Russians would put intermediate-range rockets on Cuba, but from the published testimony it was only when we saw them being built into permanent sites that we knew the rockets were really there. Maybe if the Russians had been devilishly funny, they could have planted flowers around the rocket bases to spell out "Surprise! Surprise!" in Cyrillic lettering.

Presumably, nobody ever knows how an election will go in Latin America, although we seem to devote considerable aid, diplomatic machinery, and undercover surveillance to the place.

And that is the story over and over again. We not only pick up the one Laotian strong man who isn't strong or the one Korean leader certain to splinter the nation—we never seem to know until it's over that a coup is coming.

Why not?

It is in part because men who take a course always believe, and always convince their governments, that the course is paying off. It is in part because there is always a lag between what intelligence knows and what "government spokesmen" are saying.

BUT PERHAPS it is also a national habit of staring at what was, of worrying about the anniversaries of past events, of being cheered by the permanence of present ways of action. Maybe in the New Year we should try to change our habits with a new resolution to look forward a little, to praise a little less what needs not be lauded, and to worry a little more about the insignificant guy who may turn out to be next year's honored visitor to Washington.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Neighbors' Yule Kindness Thanked

Editor, Independent-Journal:

If we are lucky, at least once in everyone's lifetime there occurs to them an experience that is truly an example of outstanding human relations. . . .

My wife and I and our four children moved from the Midwest to this area about five months ago . . . because of a minor health problem as well as the wish to locate where the opportunities were greater within my occupation. . . . We had conditioned ourselves that . . . we would be ". . . getting by, by the skin of our teeth. . . ."

Christmas Eve . . . I know we will never forget. . . . Early in the evening our doorbell rang. . . . There were packages on our doorstep for each of our children for Christmas. . . . Later in the evening we were presented with an envelope from our children. . . . We had instructed our children not to spend any of their meager savings on gifts for my wife or myself, but rather to save for something they themselves wanted. Therefore, they had taken much time and effort to compose a letter to us that was something of a personal Christmas card and will be cherished always. . . . When my wife and I had returned from Christmas Eve services at church, we discovered . . . Christmas stockings hanging from the front door knob . . . for the children. These gifts so unnerved both my wife and myself . . . that neither of us was able to contain the tears of gratefulness. . . . Once again our benefactors remained nameless.

Christmas Day at dusk our doorbell rang again. This time my wife was able to observe a car being driven away without its lights on, so as not to be identified. At her feet on the doorstep lay an envelope labeled "For Christmas." Inside the envelope was . . . $40 and a Christmas card bearing the admonition to ". . . use this for the things you would not otherwise have bought for Christmas. . . ."

Please print this for us in hopes that we can thank the unknown persons . . . .

All we can do at this time is say Thank You and God Bless You, and when circumstances permit us to, to do something for someone else in your name.

GOP Committee Praised As Effective

Editor, Independent-Journal:

"A political party is an organization composed of many different groups of people with diverse but compatible interests, who are willing to pool their efforts in order to elect a candidate who will remember those interests in formulating public policy.'

I do not know the source of the above quotation, but it strikes me as one which Republicans everywhere should have engraved on their hearts. We still have much to learn from the Democrats, who, despite extremely wide variations in political philosophy, manage at election time to pull together and operate as smoothly as the proverbial well-oiled machine.

Nevertheless, Marin Republicans can feel a deep satisfaction at having elected four out of five Republican candidates on the ticket. Few other counties in the nation can make this claim!

Much credit is due our fine County Central Committee which under its present leadership successfully conducted a record three campaigns within two years and in the last campaign worked untiringly to coordinate the activities of many enthusiastic volunteer groups, some newly formed. May the quality of leadership continue, and the grass-roots dedication and enthusiasm continue to grow, in a spirit of willing cooperation.

Racial Injustice Branded A Cancer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I appeal to all who believe in the constitutional right of eligible American citizens to register and vote. Urge your Congressman to support the challenge and "delayed seating fairness motion" directed against Mississippi Congressmen, which will be introduced on the opening day of Congress January 4, 1965. Since 95 per cent of constitutionally eligible Negro citizens (a total of 42 per cent of Mississippi's electorate) were denied the right to vote, these representatives do not come to Washington with any legal or moral mandate. The due process by which this state can be persuaded to at least a semblance of constitutional law has begun; but the apathy with which we have accepted the terrorist limitation of suffrage must first be overcome.

Since 1890, when Mississippi resumed representation in Congress, her racist government has openly flaunted the conditions for her return: A good faith ratification of the 14th and 15th Amendments.

How dare we pretend to be the "Bastion of the Free World," before a more meaningful attempt is made to put our own house in order? The savage primitivisms in the deep south are more reprehensible than the Congo atrocities, because the power structure in Dixie knows better. Gradualism is entirely unacceptable! We no longer have the dubious privilege of standing by and looking aside (as did the "good" Germans).

Those who make no major effort to heal the cancer of racial injustice are as much to blame as the perpetrators.

Edison Gets Credit For Lighted Tree

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Enclosed is a photo of the first electrically lighted outdoor tree. This photo is enclosed as there were several letters to the editor prior to Christmas relating to the possibility that a tree in Marin County may have been in line for the honor.

Thought I would set the record straight.

The Sand Sharks Of Tomales Bay

Ever go bottom fishing on Tomales Bay? If you have, you probably know all about skates, sting-rays and sand sharks, particularly the latter.

In some localities sand sharks are called dog-fish, because of their habit of traveling in packs or schools. They eat small fish and scavenge. With beautifully streamlined bodies, they reach a length of about three and a half feet.

They would frighten no one, unless he was scared of being gummed to death. Their teeth do not amount to much.

They are one of few true fishes that develop their embryos inside their primitive uteruses. Tens of thousands are used for research purposes each year, and hundreds of thousands are caught accidentally, usually with curses, by commercial fishermen.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Wirtz Accused Of Throttling California's Agricultural Life

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The recent orders of Willard Wirtz, U. S. secretary of labor, "permitting" California farm employers to continue using Mexican bracero labor, are about as phony as a three-dollar bill.

THE ORDER is discriminatory insofar as California agriculture is concerned, and virtually impossible to comply with to insure protection for crops that are now in the process of harvest.

The order further looks like a deliberate attempt on the part of the federal government to wipe out some of California's major crops, and with them, a good portion of the economy of the state.

Action of the secretary of labor is being interpreted by some California farmers as retaliatory, for the simple reason that farmers in this state have been generally conservative and Republican in their politics. While they have not been anti-labor, they have not acceeded to all the demands of labor insofar as work on the farms is concerned.

THE SECRETARY had issued an edict that, before Public Law 414 can be invoked, California must raise its minimum wage to $1.25 per hour, above both Texas and Florida.

It also must try every source possible for domestic labor before the law can become effective. All of which means long delays while the bureaucrats try as far east as Missouri for farm help.

Impossible conditions as to transportation, pay while not working, and housing have been imposed by Wirtz.

Further, California has not yet negotiated with the Mexican government for the workers under PL 414. This, too, will take time.

MEANWHILE, the lettuce crops in Southern California can lie on the ground and rot because some 10,000 Mexican workers have been chased out of California. And even the consumers of lettuce who happen to be Democrats can pay jumped up prices in the stores because some of the sources of supply are cut off.

Turning over the problem of trying to recruit 10,000 domestic workers for stoop labor in California fields is something like trying to pump a dry well, to the State Department of Employment.

The department, through no fault of its own, failed miserably in the past summer to recruit any amount of domestic stoop labor. Domestic labor, coddled by a liberal administration, simply will not go out in the fields and work for any kind of wages when it can draw the various forms of relief provided by government.

THIS IS A FACT that has been proven, and is common knowledge to individuals who have had experience with recruitment programs. Even the labor organizations, which have demanded unionization of farm labor through costly strikes, have been unable to produce the personnel needed to harvest some of California's crops. Yet these same unions are playing dog in the manger by supporting the move to retire the Mexicans.

The sum result of the federal attitude will be eventually to reduce California from a state of specialty crop production to one of field crops, the harvesting of which is not dependent on imported labor, with a consequent reduction in farm income and work for the processors and their labor in canneries and processing plants.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

GOP Devising New Steering Committee

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — A unique super-policy formulating and guiding body is in process of being put into operation by top Republican leaders of all viewpoints and factions.

BEHIND THE limelighted tense leadership struggles stirring GOP members of the House of Representatives and national committee, a remarkable degree of unanimity has been quietly reached among all party elements on the new plan—brainchild of Rep. Melvin Laird (Wis.), chairman of the platform committee at the San Francisco convention.

Leaders ranging in diversity of outlook and aims from Sen. Barry M. Goldwater and National Chairman Dean Burch to Govs. William Scranton and George Romney have approved the unusual project and expressed willingness to actively participate in it.

Designated by Laird as the "Republican Coordinating Committee," the new organization would be financed by the national committee but not be part of it, or in any way controlled or influenced by it.

ITS PURPOSE, as conceived by Laird, would be to devise policies and programs on major domestic and foreign issues and problems.

The national committee would concentrate on building up the party's organization, particularly in crucial population centers, voter registration drives, and fund raising.

First year's budget for the coordinating committee is estimated at $500,000; double that in 1966.

BACKSTAGE PLANS call for setting up the new policy-formulating committee in Washington after the national committee's scheduled meeting in Chicago to determine the fate of embattled Chairman Dean Burch.

There is no connection between the two events. Burch favors Laird's proposal, and presumably it will be set in motion regardless of what happens in Chicago.

Under Laird's organizational chart, membership of the coordinating committee would consist of all Republican presidential and vice presidential nominees; the party's Senate and House leadership, including the floor leaders, whips, and chairmen of the policy committees, caucuses and campaign committees; officers of the Republican Governors Assn.

FUNCTIONING DIRECTLY under the committee would be a permanent staff composed of representatives from all camps and elements. This staff would draft policy papers and recommendations that would be submitted to the national chairman who, in turn, would place them before the coordinating committee for consideration and action.

These task forces would specialize particularly in reviewing controversial policies and activities of the Johnson administration.

Throughout Laird's backstage discussions with party leaders, he has strongly stressed that the coordinating committee is to be "above" all factional viewpoints, "ideologies" and interests.

"THE SOLE AIM of my plan," he explains, "is to formulate sound and constructive policies and programs that would be a credit and benefit to the Republican Party as a whole. The committee would be a consensus of all viewpoints within the party and work for the common good. No individual, candidate or faction would control it, and none would be favored."

Nathan Is Gone But Well Remembered In Mill Valley

"USUALLY HE came in three to four times a day," said Ida Philpott, waitress at Meier's Bakery.

"A cigarette and coffee is what he would have . . . and he liked German apple cake awful well and was always taking a piece home."

NATHAN LIKED a good library, too. "He used to sit by the window in one of those cane chairs," said Edith Frank, assistant librarian. "He came in practically every day, usually in the afternoons. He picked up books for his wife, too . . . he was one person who didn't like the new 'no smoking' rule."

Nathan Asch, the gentle, humorous man who is reputed to have suggested to his friend, Ernest Hemingway, that he re-write "The Sun Also Rises" because it was too much of a travel book. Hemingway did.

Judy Cooke, also a librarian, tells of Nathan coming into the Mill Valley public one day with a brace and bit, and casually, grinding out the pencil holes in the sign-out desks which had been filled up with broken pencil stubs.

THE NATHAN we knew was a man who took his coffee in the afternoons with half the town — Jack Finney, writer; Jerry Montizambert, real estate, Joe Eastman, saw sharpener; Ellis Bell, clock man, and Rosie Verrall, the Goat Lady.

One day he said, "There's a lot to write about Rosie." And he told the story of his promise, on seeing her at the bakery, to return in about an hour and drive her home to her goats in Tiburon.

"When shall I come back?" he asked. She said 3 would be fine. He said he came back a few minutes early and Rosie said, "No," toying with her tea. "You said 3 and I won't leave until 3." "She didn't," said Nathan.

"HE LOVED foreign films, said a friend, Horace Schwartz, "and he smoked like a furnace in the smoking section, watching the film with the most intense interest.

Finney, who also attended foreign films with Asch, said he once mentioned that so many of the foreign pictures needlessly had unhappy endings. This was as much a cliche of European movies as the happy endings for American movies, said Asch.

"He had tremendous integrity," said Schwartz, "as far as writing was concerned. We were sitting at Sam's once. I said let's start a restaurant and call it Ernest Hemingway's. . . . He got up and stormed out of the restaurant and didn't talk to me for quite awhile.

"HE WAS A writer who never, never talked about his writing. He would say you couldn't really tell anybody how to write, technically. He talked about people, other writers he had known. He knew about everybody famous in the 30s.

"He spent his childhood in Europe. He was a close friend of Hart Crane and lived with him in upstate New York for a long time. A good friend of the family was Stefan Zweig.

"He loved to wear sloppy shoes, loafers. He wore shoes from Peal's of London. He didn't feel comfortable with any other kind.

Maybe U.S. Should Just Shut Pentagon Down For Good

WASHINGTON—A few weeks ago the U. S. Navy announced that it was trying to perfect a flying submarine, which it needed badly to protect the United States. This brought an immediate reaction from the U. S. Air Force, which announced it would soon develop an underseas airplane.

The exchange pointed out the great competition now going on between the armed services and no one is quite sure how it will all come out.

WITH MODERN warfare becoming so complicated, no one knows what role each of the services should play. At a recent top secret meeting at the Pentagon a few of the questions were thrashed out. It went something like this:

General Patent of the U. S. Army opened the meeting by saying, "Gentlemen, I am happy to announce that the United States Army now has the largest number of airplanes of any armed service in the world."

General Wings of the Air Force shouted, "I protest. The Air Force should have all of the airplanes under its command. We're not going to take this lying down."

Admiral Bilge of the U. S. Navy said, "Speaking of lying down, the U. S. Marine Corps has developed a new helicopter tank which will do away with the necessity of heavy armored divisions. The tank can be flown off aircraft carriers."

GENERAL PATENT said, "Oh, yeah, wise guy? Well, the Army has come up with a floating rocket launcher which makes the naval destroyer obsolete."

General Wings pounded the table. "I'd like to get back to these Army aircraft. There is no reason to have Army aircraft when you have a United States Air Force."

General Patent replied, "The function of the Air Force is to man intercontinental ballistic missiles underneath the ground. Our airplanes are used to support our troops. The planes you have are too fast for that and you know it."

GENERAL WINGS pulled some papers out of his briefcase. "We are now building slower planes to operate with our paratroop division."

General Patent said, "What paratroop division?"

"The paratroop division we are forming to protect our intercontinental ballistic missiles."

"The hell you say, Wings. The Army has the responsibility for protecting our ICBMs."

"Not any more it doesn't."

ADMIRAL BILGE piped up, "Will you two stop fighting? By the time you settle the argument, the Navy will have enough Polaris missiles to make the ICBM unnecessary."

General Wings replied, "That's all well and good, but when the Air Force gets its own cruisers—"

Admiral Bilge said, "What do you mean, cruisers?"

"We have to have our own cruisers to launch our atomic artillery shells."

"WHAT ARE you doing with atomic artillery?" General Patent demanded.

"We don't have to tell you everything," General Wings said.

General Patent made a dive for General Wings. Admiral Bilge picked up a water pitcher and threw it at both of them.

Fortunately at that moment the secretary of defense walked into the room and each man explained his position. The secretary fed this information into a computer and after digesting the facts the computer tape came out with this message: "If I were you, I'd close down the Pentagon."

Opening lead — ♡ 6

South's normal contract was four spades, but one player in a tournament jumped to six spades. His bid was silly, but his excuse was that he needed several unusually good scores to win the contest.

JACK OF HEARTS

West opened the jack of hearts, and South saw that he would lose two trump tricks by normal play. Since evasive action was called for, South concocted a swindle to make his slam.

Declarer won the first trick with the queen of hearts, led a club to dummy's ace, and led the ace of hearts to discard a diamond.

Then he led the king of hearts from dummy—all very quickly and eagerly.

PREVENTS DISCARD

East was convinced that South had started with two losing diamonds and that he was desperately trying to get rid of them before touching trumps.

The only way to prevent the second discard was for East to ruff with a low trump.

(Ruffing with the ace would not work, East thought, since then South would discard his second losing diamond on a trick he was sure to lose anyway.)

FOOLISH DECISION

Having come to this foolish decision, East ruffed with his low trump. South over-ruffed and led a trump. The king and ace of trumps fell on the same trick, and South tried to look sympathetic as he scored up his slam.

Did South win the tournament with this top score? No; some of his other desperate bids landed him in the soup, and he lost by a handsome margin.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ Q 9 8 6
♥ A K 8
♦ K Q 7 6 4
♣ A

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one diamond.

The hand is far from strong enough for a forcing bid. Start with your longer suit and await developments.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States in the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said School District. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on February 18, 1964 and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said School District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said School District, subject to taxation by said School District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds, and in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion certified by the official in whose office the original is filed will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of San Rafael School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Psoriasis Takes Many Forms, Silvery Skin Flakes Common

VAN DELLEN

The silvery scaling of psoriasis develops on various parts of the body and the location of the disease and the shape of the plaques determine the name. Victims of the geographic type, for example, have large irregular patches over the skin, making the surface look like a map.

Inverse psoriasis affects areas where apocrine (sweat) glands are plentiful, such as in the armpits and groins, along the hairline, around the umbilicus, and over the breastbone. The seborrheic type favors the scalp, behind the ears, and the central part of the face.

OTHER VARIETIES are named after the shape of the eruption. When it resembles a teardrop, it is called gutta-drop whereas exfoliative refers to the dry scaly outbreak that resembles eczema. Pustular lesions contain pus and usually are located in the palms and soles.

Involvement of the nails leads to yellow, spotty discolorations studded with tiny "ice pick" pits and ridging. Debris collects under the nails and the condition mimics fungal infection. Tests may be needed to rule out this possibility. Ten per cent of the victims have an associated arthritis but it is a moot question whether the two disorders are related.

THE CAUSE of psoriasis is not known except that it may be hereditary. The best method of treatment depends upon the location. Scaly scalp, for example, presents an obvious problem in women; some rub in hot mineral oil and wash it out with a tar shampoo. A liquid containing phenol, salt, and paraffin, or one of the corticosteroid preparations, can be applied and covered with a bathing cap or a plastic film like Saran wrap.

Many remedies are available for scaly areas on the remainder of the body. The topical application of a corticosteroid or a tar ointment, followed by exposure to ultraviolet, is popular. The injection of cortisone into isolated plaques has been recommended.

DREAMING AND PRESSURE

V. L. D. writes: I always am dreaming of falling. Could this be due to low blood pressure?

REPLY

No. Many dreams follow set patterns and you may have an unconscious fear of falling. Falling dreams could be a reenactment of the infantile experience of falling out of bed and being picked up and taken into bed with the nurse or mother.

COLD HANDS

J. R. writes: My elderly father always has cold hands. Is there any way to improve his circulation?

REPLY

This is difficult to do at an advanced age. It might help to keep the room warm. Suggest cotton gloves if he complains about this symptom. Rubbing the hands with a vasodilator like Nitrol ointment may be helpful.

SPINAL CHANGES

H. C. writes: What treatment do you recommend for hooks and spurs on the spine?

REPLY

None, unless there is backache. These X-ray changes are noted in individuals with or without symptoms. Heat, massage, and a brace or corset may be helpful if pain is present.

REPLY

If you enjoy this dish and have no adverse effects from it, why give it up?

INFLAMED APPENDIX

E. T. writes: What is the cause of appendicitis?

PARALYSIS FROM TICK

R. L. writes: My father is in the hospital with tick paralysis. His doctor says it just has to work out of his system. Have you any suggestions?

REPLY

DAILY ALLERGY PILL

Mrs. V. B. writes: Is it harmful for an 8-year-old child with allergic rhinitis to take an antihistamine pill every day?

REPLY

No, provided she is examined by her physician from time to time.

Fight In Bar Leads To Arrests

School Site Issue On List At Lagunitas

Another vote on the controversial school site issue is expected when Lagunitas School District trustees meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Lagunitas School.

The trustees split 2-2, with chairman Leslie S. Stone absent, in their first vote Dec. 15 on the site adjacent to and including part of the Woodacre Improvement Club. Four homes would be removed if the Woodacre Club site were developed. A petition with 300 signatures has been presented opposing choice of the club site.

The trustees all feel the club site is the best, but vary in their willingness to go against public sentiment.

Trustees will consider bids on a package insurance program for the district which would include fire and liability coverage.

They will also be asked to approve the hiring of a new bus driver.

State Of Union On 'Live' Tonight

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The first State of the Union address ever to be delivered "live" during the prime hours of nighttime television will be made tonight by President Johnson.

All three major networks will carry the message, which will be presented to a joint session of Congress, at 9 p.m. EST.

It is only the second time a State of the Union address has been delivered at night. The first one was by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936.

Walt Disney continues to quietly and unobtrusively defy many of the so-called requirements for television success this season, and his weekly NBC-TV hour on Sundays continues, just as quietly and unobtrusively, to be immensely unpopular.

It is not a new experience for the incredible showman. Not too many years back, when movies began to increase in raciness, he simply went his own way and prospered more than ever. Now, with gentleness considered rather "out" for network entertainment, he is as gentle as ever, and his ratings are amazingly high.

Last night, for instance, he offered a show noting the 10th anniversary of Disneyland, and it began with a rather lengthy and low-key explanation by the boss about future plans for the amusement park.

It was not the sort of opening that all-knowing video executives would consider a "grabber," and yet one of the joys of watching the sequence was one's inner knowledge that probably no network expert would dare to suggest to Disney that things be done differently.

It was rather astounding, as the show went along, to contemplate what a video rule-breaker Disney is, especially this season. His program is not loud and offensive, as are so many so-called children's shows. And there is no running fictional character in the main part each week. Disney and his name are, of course, the stars.

Disney presented some films Sunday night of the orange grove and fields that used to be where Disneyland is now; and of some of the construction work as the years went on; and of celebrities that visited the park. There were also shots of the park itself and some of its attractions.

Marinites Invited To Auto Show

Four Marin County car enthusiasts have been invited to display their vehicles in the 1965 San Mateo Auto Show Friday through Sunday at the county fairgrounds.

Robert A. Davies of 160 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere, has entered a 1934 Rolls Royce drop head coupe, one of four of a kind, which was originally owned by Lord Chief Justice H. L. Parker.

Frank A. Volta of 5 La Crescenta Way, San Rafael, has entered a 1959 modified Goggomobile which was originally a two-door sedan and was converted into a pick-up.

Warren Bacciocco of 607 Sausalito Boulevard, Sausalito, has entered a 1941 Willys pick-up which has been fitted with a fiberglass body and aluminum bed and a 500 cubic inch ram-charged Plymouth engine.

Warren's brother, Joe, has entered a 1963 Corvette Sting Ray equipped with a 1964 Chrysler ram charger.

The show, including the third annual model drag racing championships, will be open from noon to 11 p.m.

Skin Divers Enter Films In Exposition

Two Marin County skin divers, LeRoy French of 134 Woodside Drive, San Anselmo, and Al Giddings of 859 Flaxberry Lane, Lucas Valley, have entered films in the Central California Underwater Film Exposition Jan. 16 and 17 in the Oakland Auditorium theater.

French's "Inside a Sea of Darkness," a film shot at night off the Cayman Island in the Caribbean, and Giddings' "Waters of Honduras" and slides taken by both men will be included in the exposition.

Housing Tour Open For Senior Citizens

Twenty-five seats are still available for a bus tour to inspect senior citizens' housing from the San Rafael Recreation Center at 9 a.m., Jan. 14, the San Rafael Recreation Department reported today.

Four different kinds of housing will be visited in the Bay area with the tour ending about 5:30 p.m.

Belvedere Plans Yule Tree Burn

Residents may leave Christmas trees at Lagoon road opposite Maybridge Circle any time up to the beginning of the event.

Mayor Merritt K. Ruddock will open the ceremonies, followed by songs by a Reed School district choral group. The Belvedere teen club will aid in building the fire.

Estate Planning

San Rafael attorney Jay R. MacMahon will discuss "some aspects of estate planning" at the weekly breakfast meeting of the Marin County Real Estate Board, scheduled for 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael.

MORE SPACE FOR INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL

Next stage of work on the Independent-Journal's building addition along Fifth Avenue in San Rafael will be to remove a great deal more of the soil seen at the left center, above, along with the cement retaining wall and even the sidewalk above. Ultimately the sidewalk will be rebuilt with part of the new cement structure — dual-walled with inner sealing to prevent moisture seepage—extending under the sidewalk to house ink storage, control rooms and other details. The entire building will comprise a basement and two floors above street level with new five-unit "colormatic" Hoe presses occupying all three floors.
